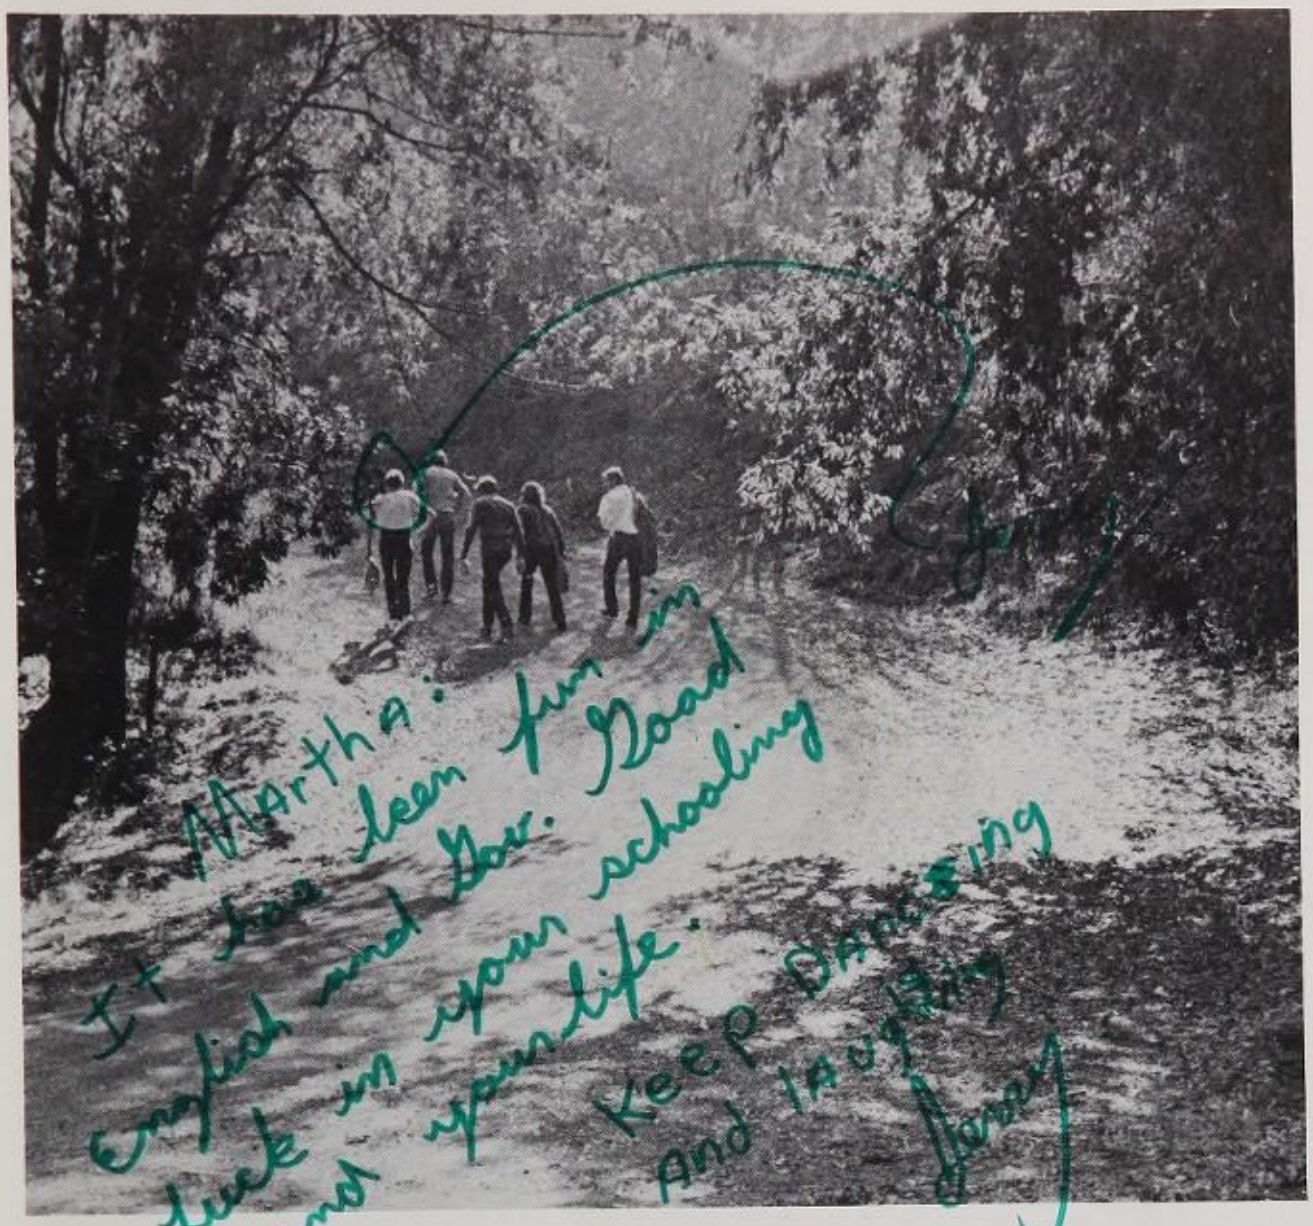
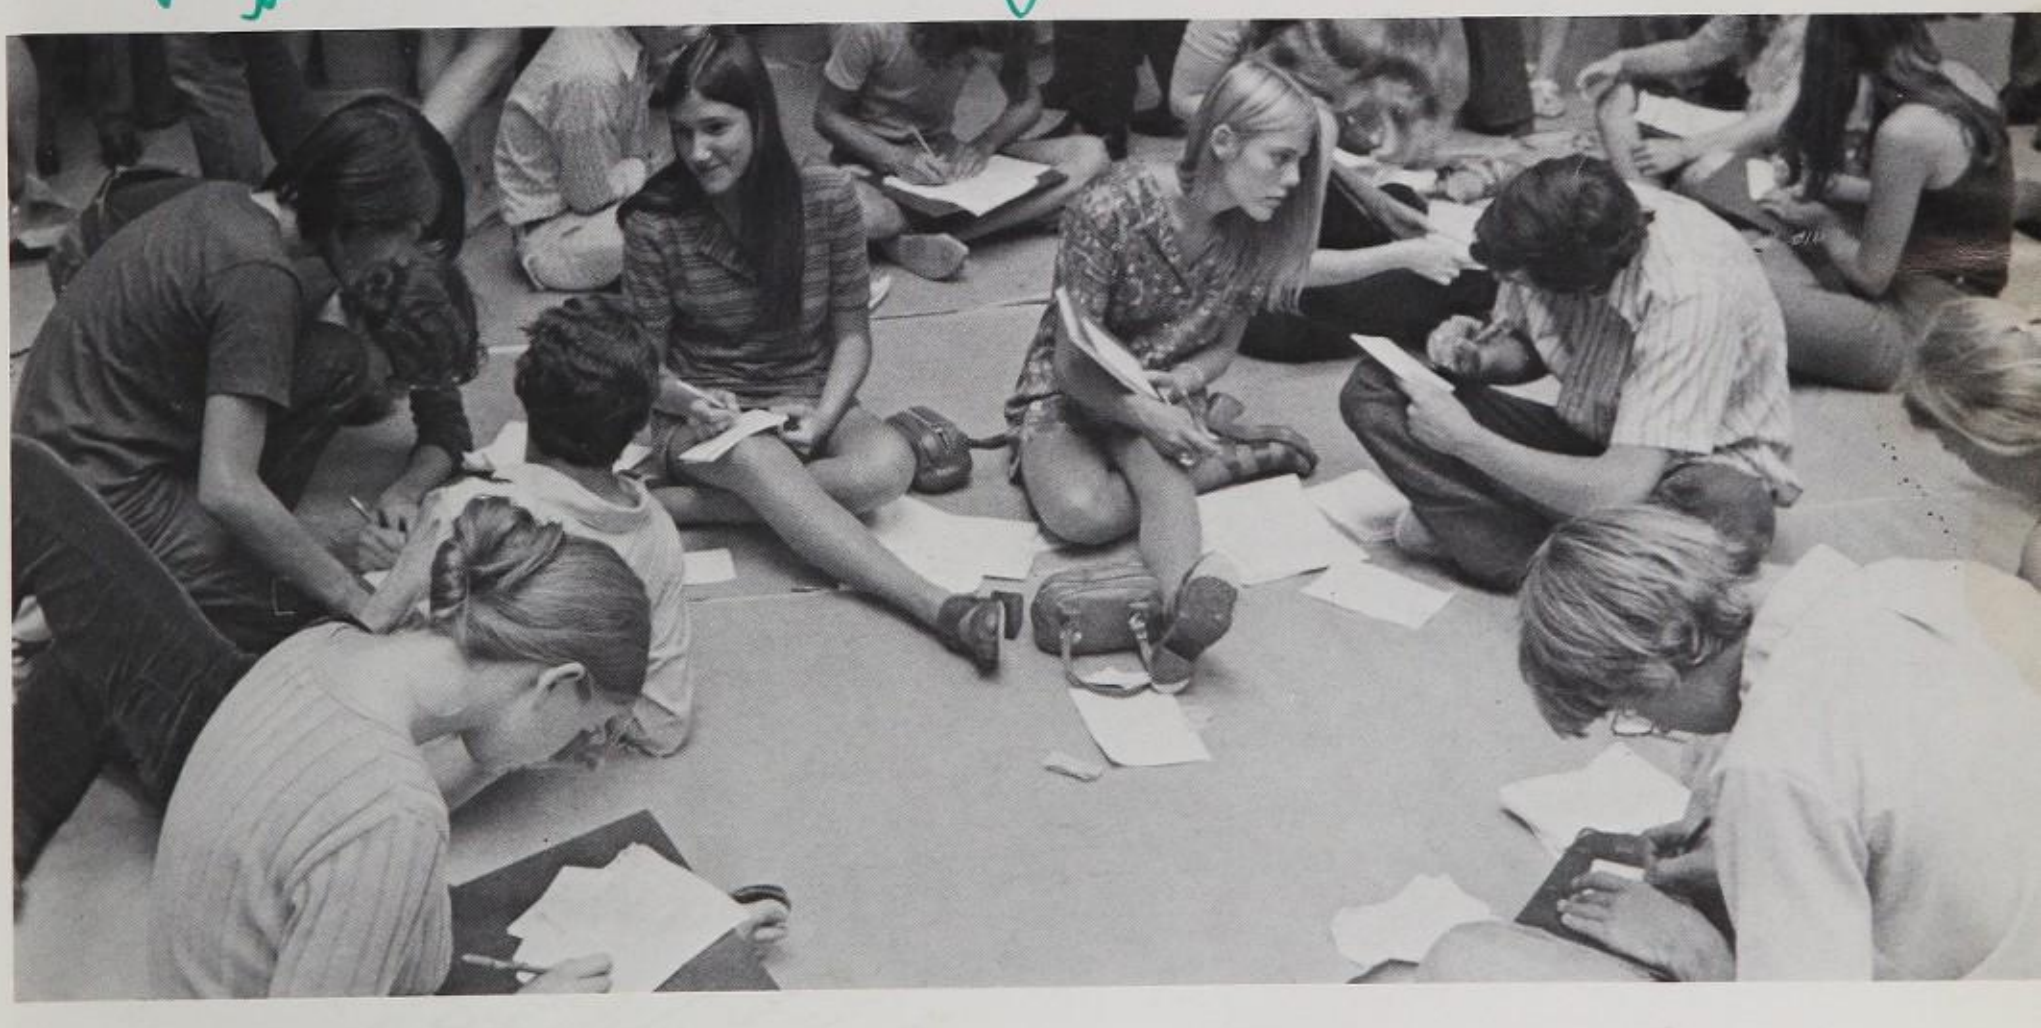
Innovations sweep campus

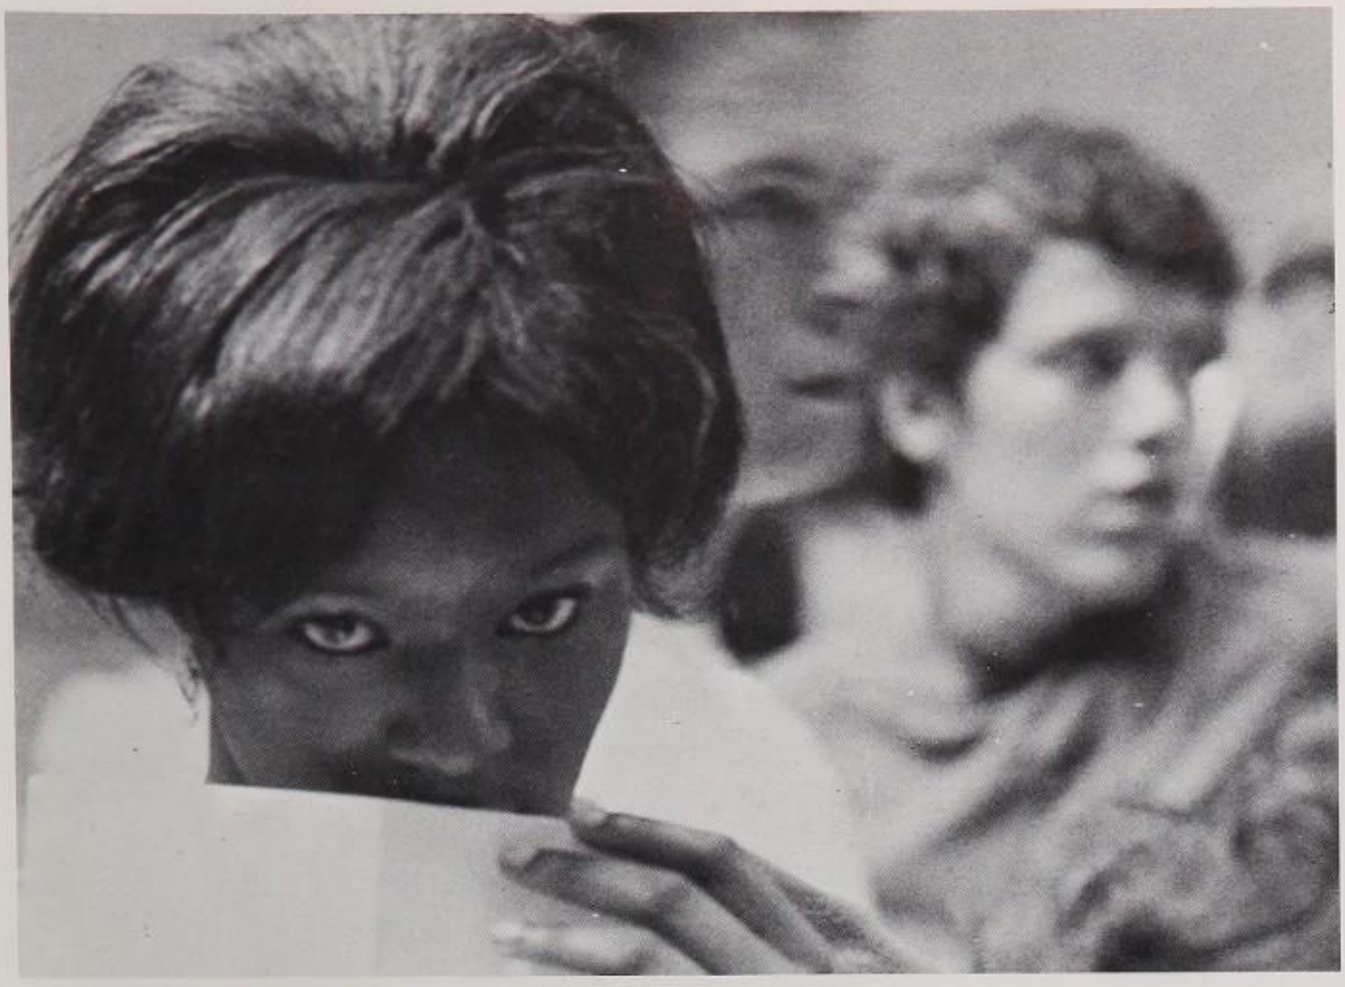


Lingering on dreams of summer, new students began the 1971-72 school year, while upper classmen had new dreams of coming freedom in a few short months. With the approval of Mr. David Swanson, Skyline principal, more seniors than ever before made the decision to graduate early.

Placing much of the responsibility of program scheduling on the students, the Mill System was initiated in the fall. With a few problems to be worked out, the system was a successful experiment in student independence.

Creative minds that could not or would not be satisfied within the bounds of the traditional school system promoted perhaps the most educationally important innovation in a year of tremendous experimentation. Funded by the New Notions program, School Within a School attempted to bring the perceptive and sensory delights of mind and body to those whose imaginations had dulled through disuse.





Years fade, dreams last

Singled out by the camera, captured in the pages of a yearbook, Skyline 72 has become history on the shelf and a memory in the minds of faculty and students. Spanning fall, winter, and spring, unique in the capsule of time, another school year has been entered in the ledger of years.

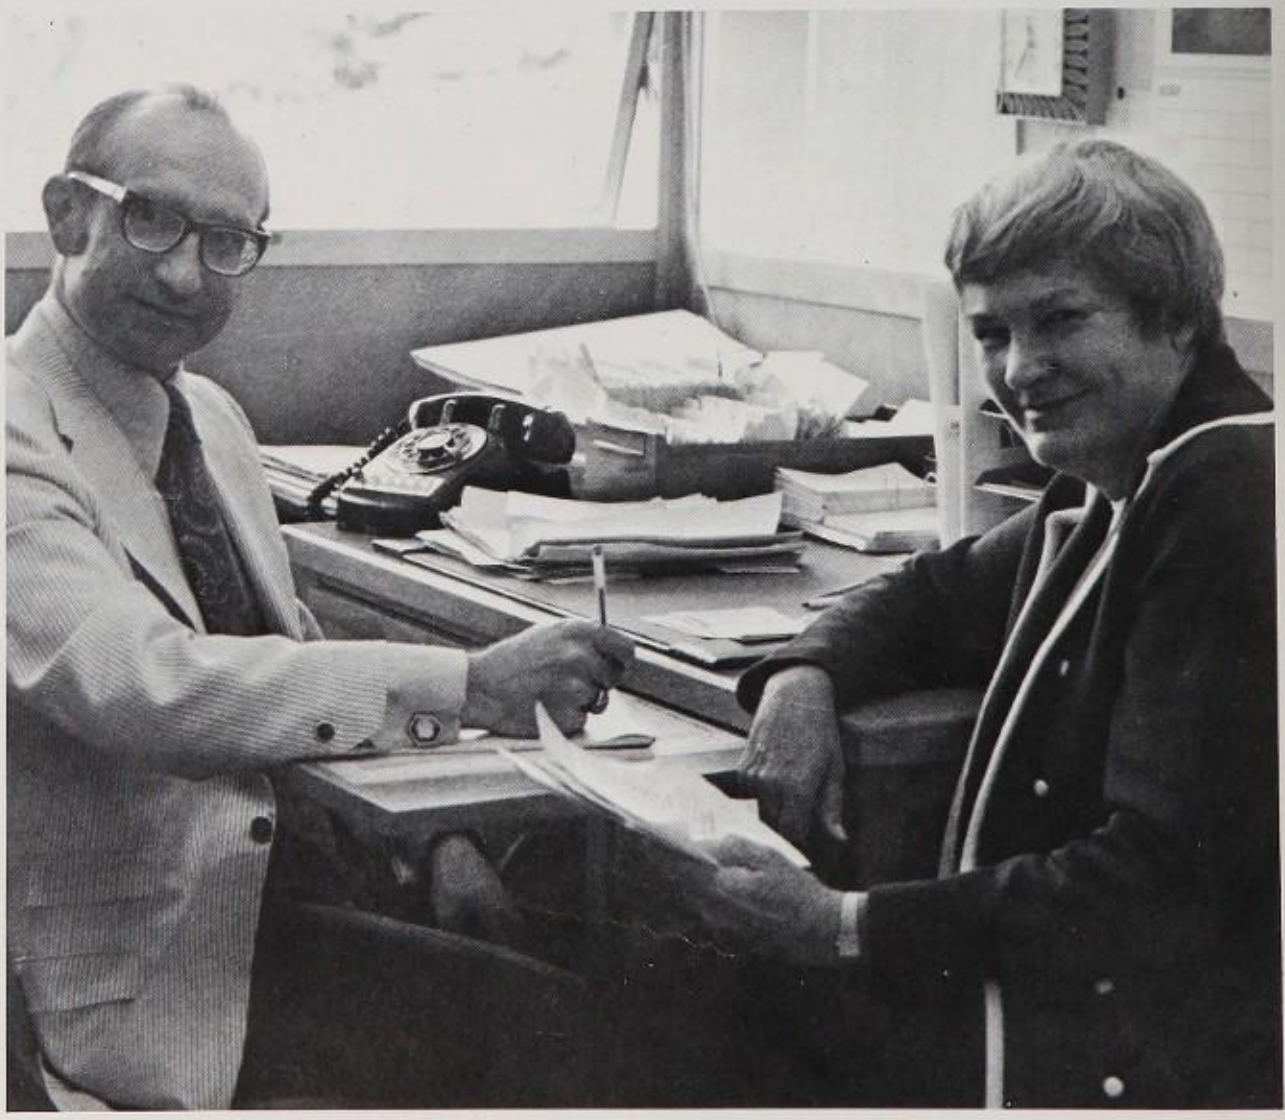
Experimental programs add more responsibilities

Faced with new responsibilities due to several experimental programs (the "Mill", "School Within A School", Opportunity Program"), counselors somehow managed to remain friends as well as advisers to all students seeking aid. Time was always found to listen to the students problems.

Mr. Henry Bianchi became head counselor this year and assumed the responsibilities of coordinating the new "Mill" system and the "Regional Occupation Center". As scholarship chairman, assisted by Mrs. Juanita Thomas, he handled student financial aid. Mrs. Thomas and Mrs. Marjorie Beach headed College and Scholarship Club.

Miss Valerie Brenan continued to find jobs for students within the school as "Inside Work Experience" coordinator and was also the vocational counselor. Mr. Martin Jemo distributed to students information concerning colleges and coordinated "College Night". Mrs. Faye Smith, a new counselor, became testing chairman.

Counselors Marjorie Beach and Juanita Thomas discuss a student's requested program change.
Counselors Martin Jemo and Faye Smith plan the procedure for the November College Night.



Counselors Henry Bianchi and Valerie Brenan make plans for Chi-Epsilon KYA Oneders game.

Wilma Lorentz, vice principal, is continually busy, but she always has time to smile.

Larger number than ever distinguishes school year

Coping efficiently with the greatest number of students in Skyline history, Mr. David Swanson completed his first hectic year as a principal. He had the nearly impossible task of matching too many students with too few teachers. Mr. Sidney Simonson, vice-principal, worked out the Master Program and balanced classes after the initial Mill Day programming. Vice-Principal Wilma Lorentz headed Zonta Club and girls' discipline while Vice-Principal George Benson directed teacher supervision at pre-season and Oakland Athletic League functions, as well as boys' discipline.

Principal David Swanson pauses on a tour of the campus to admire Skyline's view.

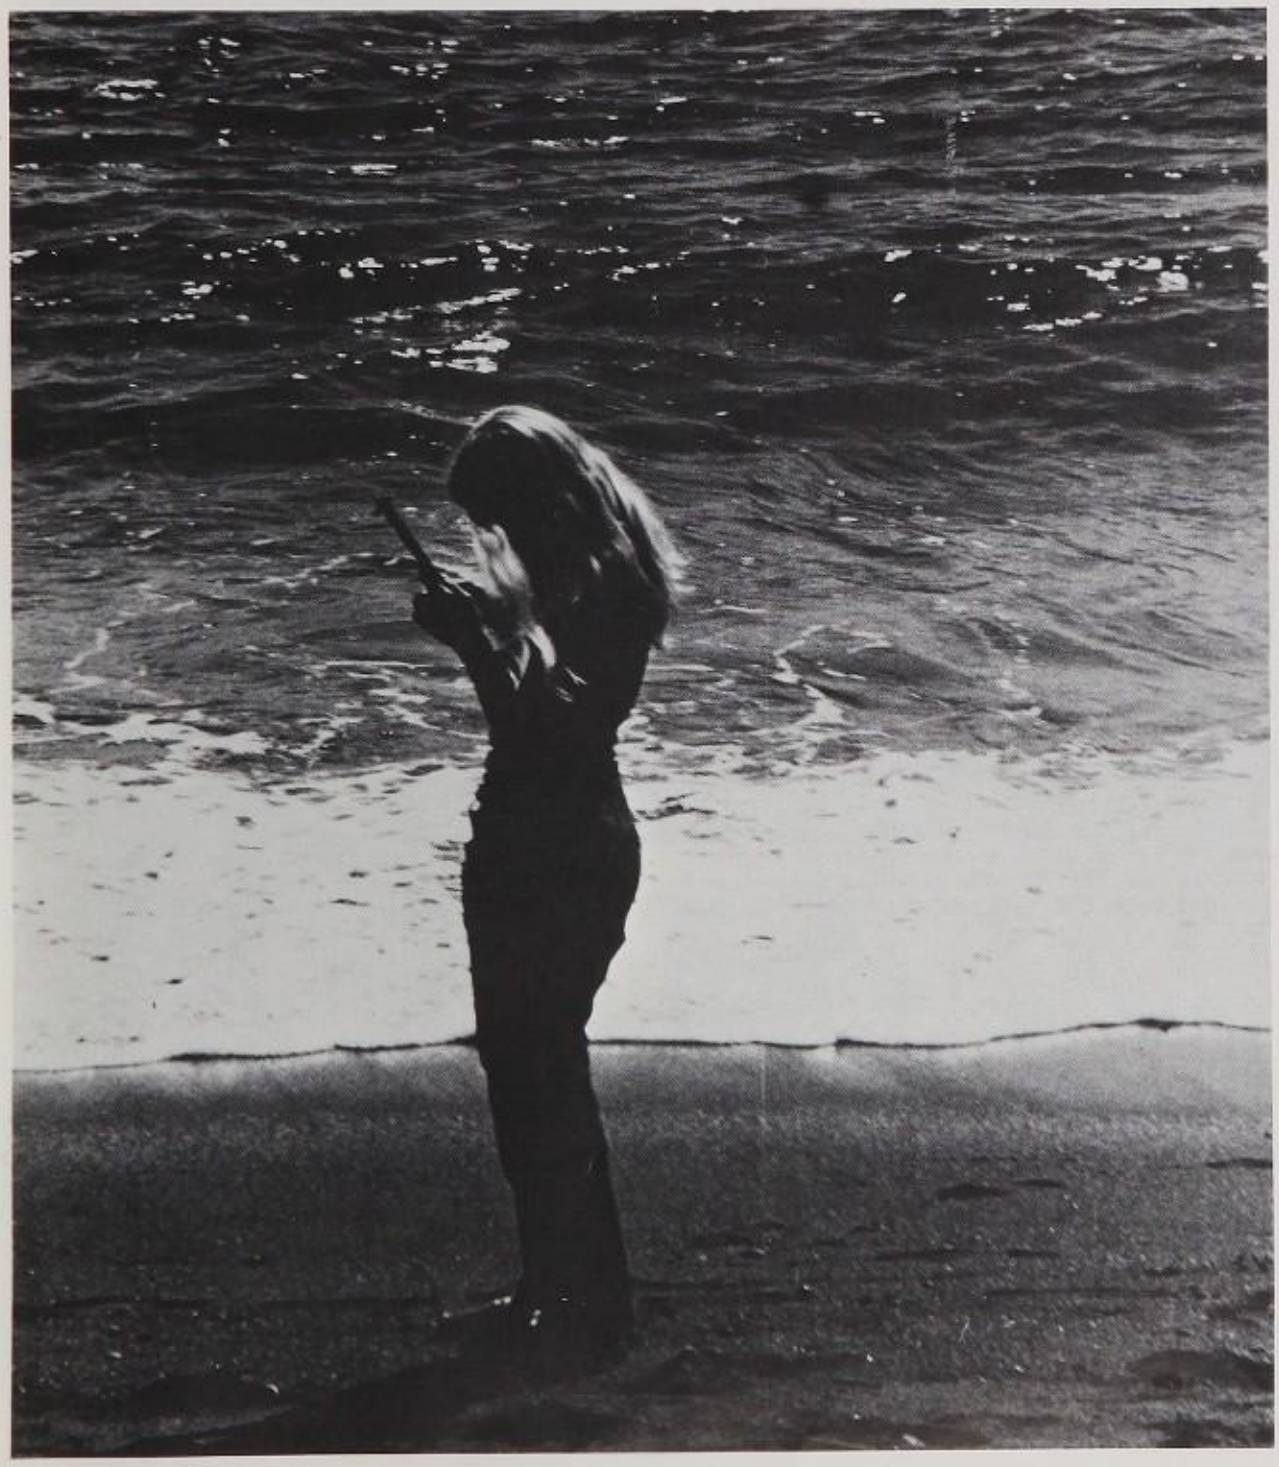
'Mill' scheduling takes over

Organized to provide students with the opportunity for complete self-scheduling, the "Mill" was the first system of its kind to be used in Oakland. The "Mill" was formed to let students set up programs to fit their various needs. The purpose was to attempt to stabilize class enrollment earlier, which would eliminate many program changes. The "Mill" decreased the number of transfers and increased the number of satisfied students throughout the year.

Students gather outside the auditorium before going through the "Mill" to self-schedule.

At "Mill" conflict station, social science teacher Mr. Maurice Besse and Principal David Swanson aid Dietra Robinson, Jim Harper, Louis Kopecky, Nancy Peshon, and Sally Lowell.

School Within a School' proves relevant



"School Within A School," an alternative to "the system," completed its first year of existence. In addition to the normal class offerings, many extra curricular activities were scheduled. Guest speakers from all over the country came, movies were presented, and field trips to varied points around the Bay all added to the school's ability to reach students.

Before school started, some of the students and teachers got together for a camp-out at Kerby Cove. The purpose of the trip was to develop good teacher-student relationships, a more relaxed atmosphere.

Teacher Mike Manshardt leads class members Lynn Wanrhaftig, Laurie Swift, Kathy Biasca, Becca Hoff, Gary Manshardt, Sherry Piper, Robert Watts, and Robin Burns in an environmental studies course in "SWS."

Excellence in special areas assists in smooth operation

Among the hardest working people at Skyline were the many secretaries. Mrs. Cleo Metzner, dean of secretaries, was busy helping with the flexible schedules program and "School Within A School". Mrs. Alice Gardner kept the vice-principal's office running smoothly. Mrs. Genvieve Quan and Miss Barbara Tabler handled all problems in the attendance office. Mrs. Mary Fischer and Mrs. Hazel Butler managed transcripts for all students. After years of relieving the pressures in the counseling office, Mrs. Betty Caria, upon leaving Oakland, was replaced by Mrs. Lynn Sutton. In the principal's office was Mrs. Elizabeth Connolly, the new Regional Occupation Center clerk. She replaced Mrs. May Lim who became another typist in the principal's office.

Human Relations department was headed by Mr. Eugene Horwitz and Mrs. Mildred Marcus. Mr. Horwitz was also in charge of senior activities and associates council.

Keeping the library in order was Mrs. Lauretta Williams. The large cut in the budget made it difficult to supply the library.

Miss Ann Potter, nurse, aided by Mrs. Lenore Tietjen, worked with the students to improve their health by self-evaluation.

In charge of banking and financial transactions was Mrs. Grace Ford, who managed the bank every day but Monday.

New services are added

From the original September 1961 resource room for physically handicapped students, many programs evolved. Under the guidance of Miss Helen Desort, this program developed into many fields of learning. These include a program for the educationally handicapped headed by Mrs. Margaret Pickford. The oral-deaf classes, under Mrs. Mary Thompson, was aided by two new teachers Mrs. Judith Herlacher and Mrs. Willa Young. New this year is a learning adjustment program which is under the direction of Mrs. Marja Virjo.

Custodial Staff, headed by Mr. John Cordano, was very effective this year in keeping the campus clean and in running order, even though the staff is smaller than it has been in the past.

Campus Control staff, led by Mr. Norman Case, maintained order on school grounds, in spite of the fact that there were many more students this year.

Skyline's custodial staff includes Olga Costello, Henrietta Ramirez, Harry Kiefer, John Cordano (head), Nathanial Walker, Jim Parent, Harold Figaro, and Santago Simon.

Rising costs tax cafe staff

Determined to keep student prices down while food prices rise, the patient cafeteria staff daily met the challenge of feeding hundreds of hungry students.

Despite the sometimes careless treatment of the plants and grounds, John Cordano and his staff worked hard to keep them the most attractive in the city.

Designed to entice disinterested students, the Student Opportunity Program came to Skyline. Planned by Superintendent, Dr. Marcus Foster and Mr. Henry Reynolds, the program was led by Mrs. Deborah Stone and Suzanne McCullock in room 134.

Respect for authority was emphasized in the Reserve Officer Training Corps. Supervised by Eliot Curtis and Boyd Williams, the Skyline cadets trained in the classroom and on the field. The drill team won first place of the Oakland schools in the Albany Veterans' Parade.

Working various shifts throughout the school day, cafeteria staff includes P. Harris, I. Plemmons, P. Nelson, M. Hutzles, L. Friesen, M. Bugnatto, T. Simmons, M. Hughes, E. Sanders, F. Vanengano, L. Garon, L. Vancil, A. Slawinski, D. Holland, L. Knagas, K. Koyama, N. Munson.

Art classes obtain sander

New to the art department in 72 was a disk sander. It gave the students the opportunity to produce a greater variety of projects.

Due to the loss of a teacher and the added responsibility of providing art classes for the new "School Within a School" program, the classes were unusually large.

Mr. Albin Templeman once again headed the department as he has since 1961.

As an accounting lesson, Mr. Larry Mattal wanted to show his students that a check could be written on a human chest and still be cashed. Nick Lenhart supplied the chest and the experiment was a success.

In preparation for their convention, the senior members of the Distributive Education Clubs of America held a candle sale. The students of the rest of the group joined their parents to conduct a candy sale.

Heading the business education department in the absence of Mrs. Vivian Siegfried was Mrs. Helen Tomigal. Mrs. Siegfried spent the entire year in the Oakland administration building. She will return to Skyline next year.

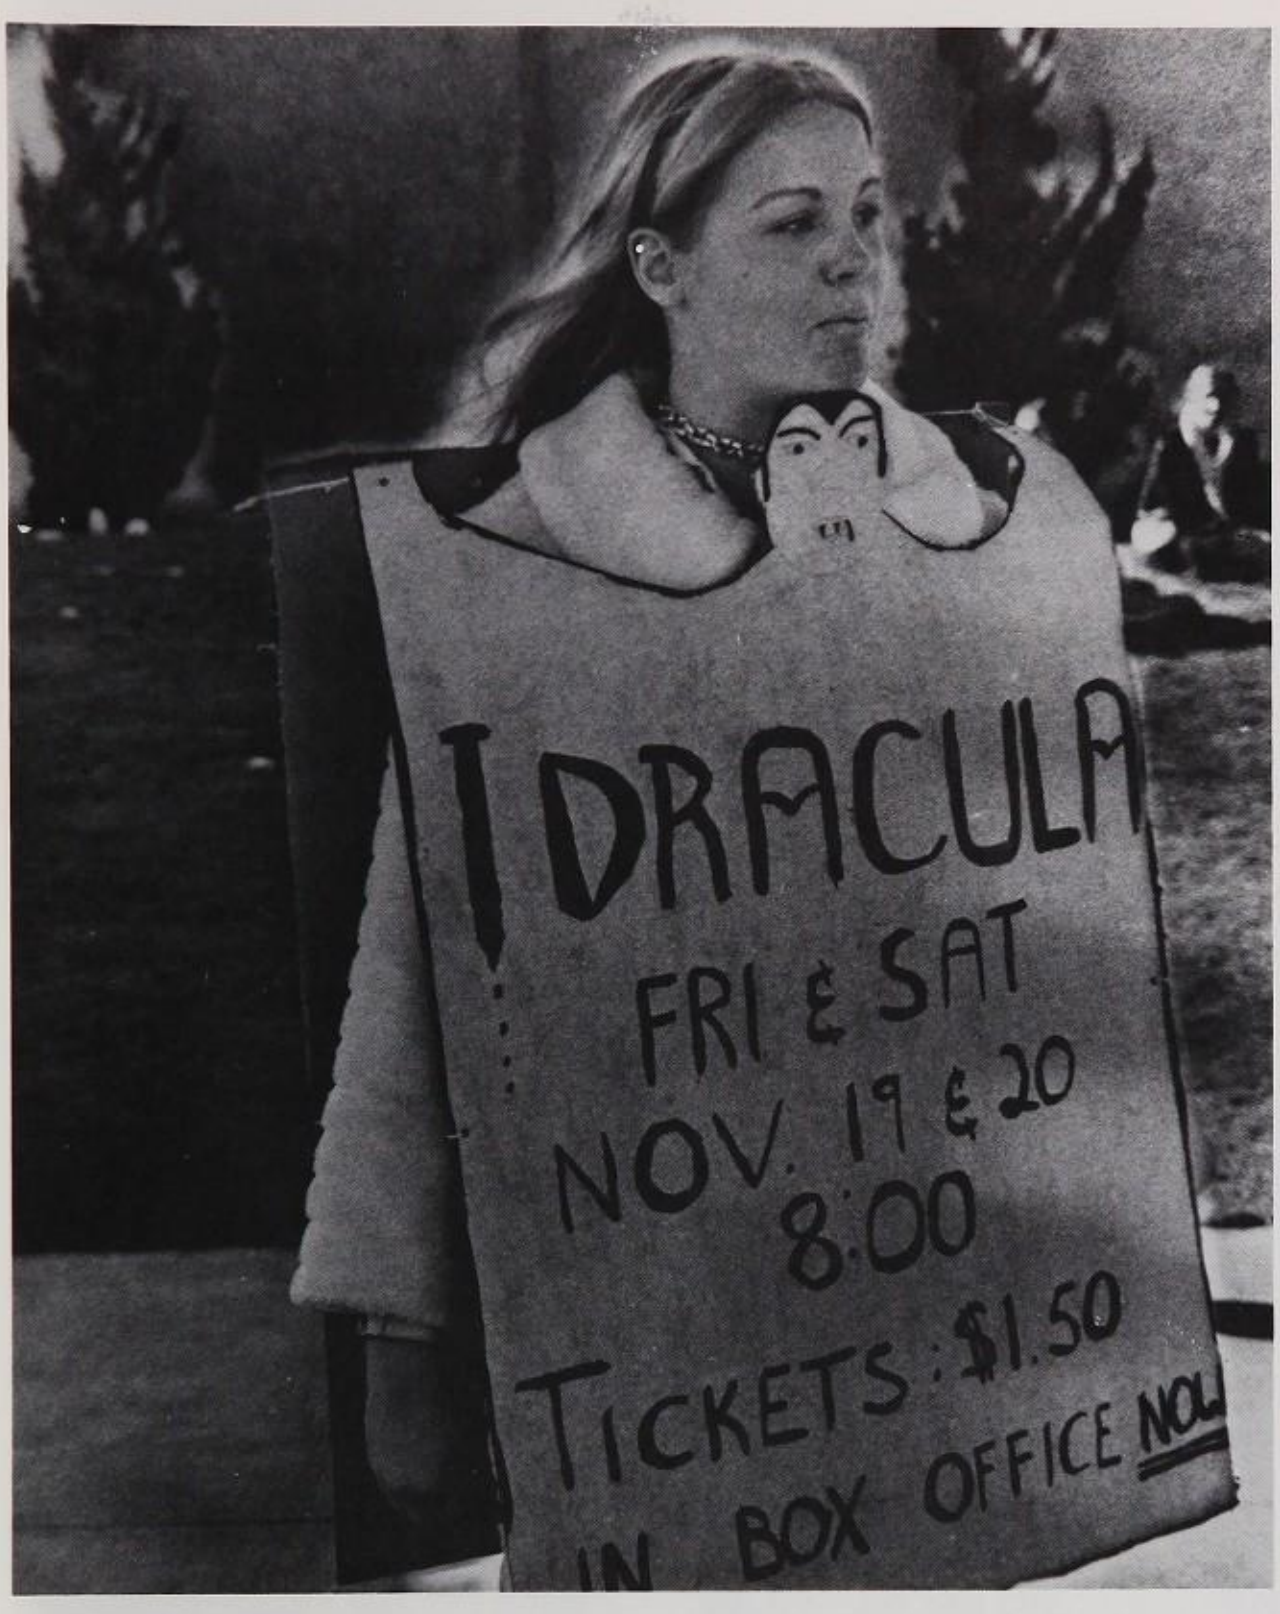
English teachers take part in new methods workshop



Due to a lack of student interest in English, teachers in the department attended workshops throughout the year to learn new methods and techniques of teaching in the fields of classic and multi-ethnic literature, contemporary stories, and poems. Employing a new concept in teaching, students were used as tutors in the classroom with the hope that they might better relate to their peers.

Joining the staff of Skyline's English department was Miss Eloise Keller, who taught for many years at Oakland Technical High School before coming to Skyline.

Field trips were planned throughout the entire year. The neccessity for new books was fulfilled. The Spanish classes received new Level I books. New programs are begun Management, family care, and home safety were emphasized in the homemaking department with sewing and cooking a smaller role in the curriculum. Mrs. Kazuye Yoshimura, department head, broadened the scope of the department by starting classes in stitchery and needle arts.

To accomodate students unable to include homemaking in their daily schedules, weekly classes were held after school.

Science class studies frog

New to the science department were Mrs. Thelma Williams and Dr. Lawrence Edwards. Mrs. Williams who taught for nine years at King Junior High came to Skyline to teach biology and para medical physiology courses. Dr. Edwards taught math and biology. Taking a break from their regular departments, Mrs. Charlotte Rich taught biology during third period, and Mr. Fred Noel taught biology, during lunch time to help Mr. Roger Brehmer with his biology classes during the day.

Striving to regain the Berg Trophy, symbol of athletic supremacy, the boys' physical education department pushed Skyline's athletes to peak performance. Blending youth with experience, the department had great success in relating to student problems. Department head Paul Berger will be hard pressed next year to find a capable replacement for the nationally known baseball coach, George Powles, who retired in June after nine years at Skyline.

After receiving new materials for the anthropology class, teachers were able to expand and improve their teaching techniques. Among the supplies received were books, tapes, and film strips. Department head Miss Margaret Ward directed her staff in explaining the class system and the eighteen-year-old vote. Because many seniors wanted to graduate early, a heavy burden was put on the government teachers in the first semester to enable those students to complete their graduation requirements before February.

With spot color and duotones, the Olympian featured color in all divisions for the first time. Also added to the yearbook was a club roster which listed all clubs and all members of each club, band and orchestra.

Rushing to meet deadlines and struggling to write copy, the yearbook staff recorded a year of history. Editor Jan Sawyer and the adviser Mrs. Pege Rankin spent many long hours before and after school correcting layouts and proofs. Olympian 72 was published by Pischel Yearbooks, Inc. Representing the firm to Skyline was Mr. Don Freeman.

Oracle wins high honors

For the 1972 Oracle staff the deadline was always near. Reporting on campus news before it occured as well as after and taking unusual photos were the responsibilities of the reporters and photographers. Counting headlines, planning a layout, and arranging a final paste-up for the page was the problem faced with every issue of the Oracle.

Again awarded Quill and Scroll's highest honor, International Honor Award, the Oracle attempted to give each edition a new twist or a new feature.

Compiling, administering, and checking the results of the drug survey of the entire school was one of the major tasks of the staff this year. Among other innovations were a larger editorial section, more movie and book reviews, a series of articles on the department heads, more letters to the editor and a section on "Bay Area Happenings" listing activities in the Bay Area.

Oracle newspaper editors include Jeff Mapes, Duain Anderson, adviser Mrs. Pege Rankin, Mark Smith, Hank Wirta, Tim Clancy, Bruce Kadden and Kathy Clayton.

Outstanding newswriters gain international awards

For the tenth year in a row, Skyline has been a member of the Quill and Scroll Society. To become a member of this international honor society for high school journalists, a person has to have over one hundred and fifty printed inches in the school newspaper. This year eleven Skyline students were honored with the Quill and Scroll International membership.

Journalism II students double check their copy for the Oracle before it is sent to the printers. Period 2 students include Kevin Myers, Pat McCarthy (clerk), Cindy Williams, Larry Pencovic, Frank Carrara, Amie Manown, Eeva Lonnblad, Doreen Jones, Joan Steele, Julie Catron, Ken McKee, Val Velez, Jane Barrick, and Rhonda Akin. Each year there are two special editions, one at Christmas and one at Graduation-senior edition.

Spirit leaders cheer team to first win over Oakland

During Skyline's victorious football season, there were laughter and tears behind the spirited cries of the members of the three cheer squads. The cheer leaders, song girls, and letter girls of 1971-72 led Skyline rooters in cheers which stimulated the Titans to a long-awaited win over Oakland, placing them second in the Oakland Athletic League.

The 20 girls who made up the three cheer squads sponsored projects to raise money to pay for their new and imaginative uniforms. Their routines and yells raised enthusiastic and devoted spirit among appreciative fans at the rally preceeding the Homecoming game. Skyline's cheerleaders, song girls and letter girls will never be forgotten because of their bright smiles and strong school spirit.

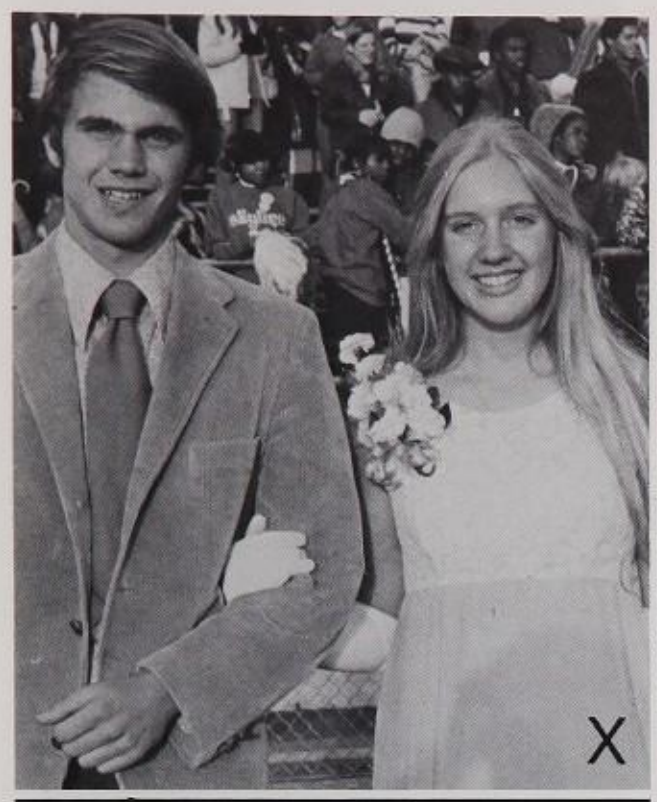
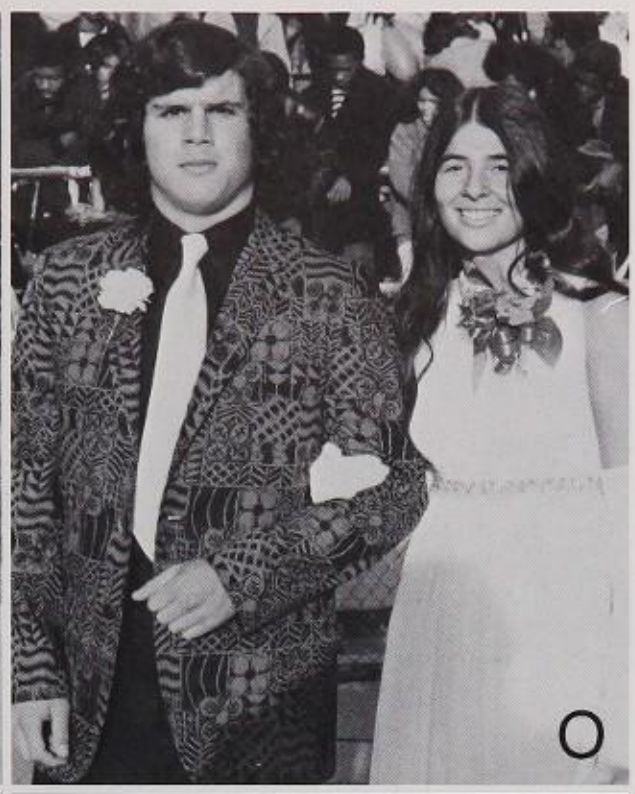
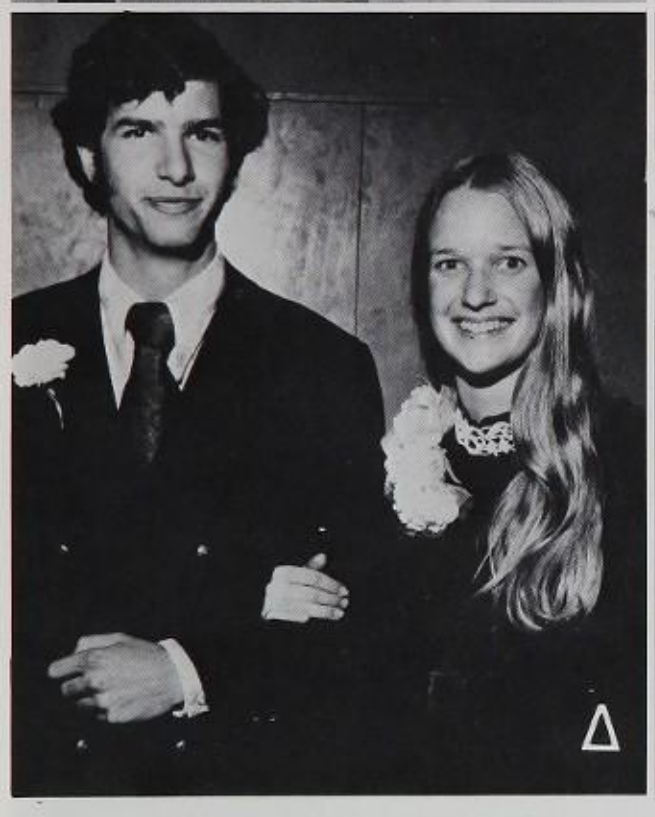
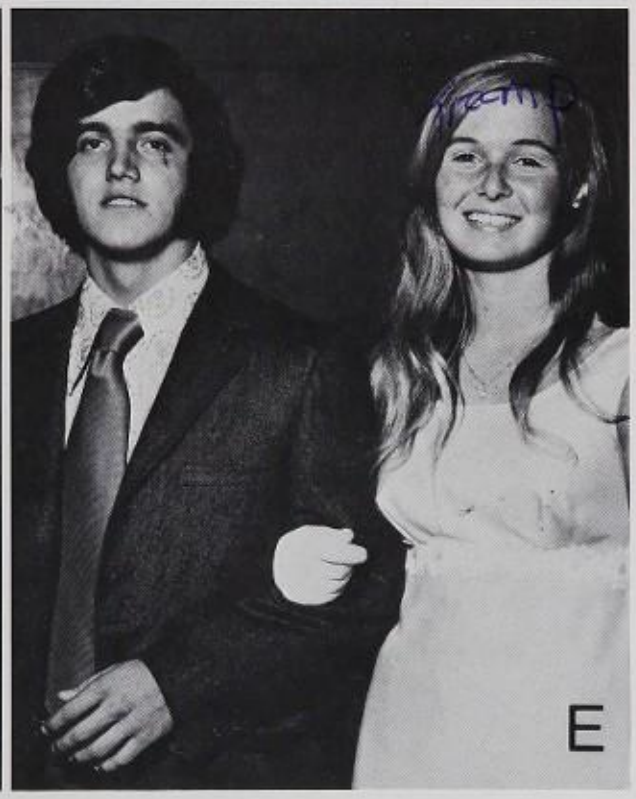
Students elect black queen









For the first time in Skyline's history, a black candidate was chosen for Homecoming Queen. Michelle Wainwright was chosen to represent the school as the 1971-72 queen. The coronation ceremony took place at the evening dance, Friday, November 12. Escorted to the dance by Brent Turner, the queen received the crown from last year's queen, Sharlyn Falaschi who returned for the event. Chilled by the brisk winds, the Homecoming candidates and their escorts were introduced to the capacity crowd during halftime at the game. 'International Day' offers insight into cultures

"International Day" originally scheduled for January 7, was postponed until February 10. Taking full advantage of the warm, spring-like weather, Skyline students and faculty enjoyed a chance to get to know cultures different from their own. The day's activities were as spread out as they were diversified. Events ranged from a movie in the auditorium to groups playing on the football field. Ethnic foods were sold and a karate demonstration was staged on the Senior Lawn during the course of the day.

Straight from Transylvania nocturnal 'Dracula' emerges

Ghoulish enough even for those least inclined to palpitations of the heart, the fall play "Dracula" was certainly an escape from the ordinary Skyline production. Saturday night's performance (apparently due to the presence of a full moon) attracted an anxious crowd, while the Friday performance was a success among the more timid members of the surrounding community.

Designed and directed by Rawley T. Farnsworth, drama teacher, the production was accentuated by hazy mist, bats, and howling dogs. Handled by a crew of over one hundred, the special effects were as important to the atmosphere as was the cast. Organizing crews were stage managers, Kelly Ferro and Pam Berg-Neilson.

An active member of the International Thespian Society, the drama department is devoted to the advancement of dramatic arts in secondary schools throughout the nation.

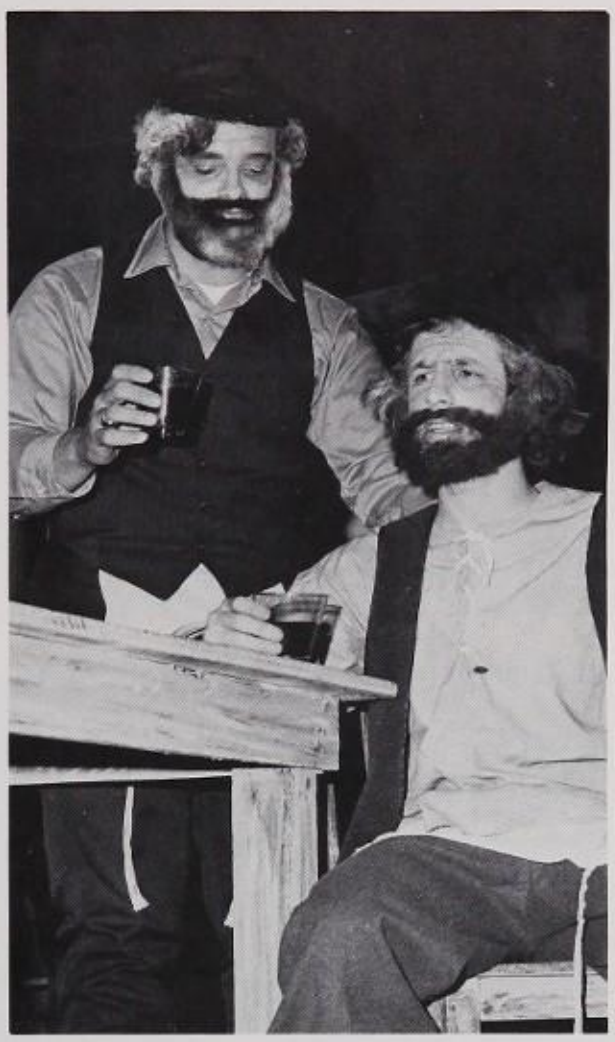
Spring musical is sellout



"Fiddler On The Roof", a current Broadway musical, was presented by the fine arts department in March. Mr. Rawley Farnsworth, Mrs. Joanne McKray, Mr. Richard Adams, Miss Elyse Dukatz, and Mr. William Rader spent many rehearsal hours with the 300 students involved in the performances, working together and coordinating the directional, musical, and technical aspects of the production. Due to their leadership and outstanding organization, both performances were considered by many people to be the best musical Skyline has ever presented.

The cast, chorus, dancers, and crew members were very satisfied with the success of the musical. Tickets were sold out both nights. Steve Kalm as Tevye, and Gayle Barsamian as Golde, played the leading roles.

Highlights of the production included the enjoyable music scores, such as "If I Were A Rich Man", "Matchmaker", "Sunrise Sunset", and "Do You Love Me?", the dream scene and the wedding dances.

The sentimental theme of breaking tradition and leaving the past behind touched the hearts of many in the audience.

Agreeing to the marriage of his daughter and Lazar Wolfe, Tevye and Lazar (Dan Samrick) make a toast.

Apt seniors gain awards plus honors

Scholarships were earned by many deserving seniors in pursuit of higher education. Among the scholarships won were a four year monetary grant to the University of Southern California, a $1000 scholarship to Linfield College, and a $500 award to Rice University in Texas. Other students won first through third places in the Skyline Market Art Contest sponsored by Piedmont Grocery Company.

Chosen by the senior class council, the recipient of the daughters of the American Revolution Girl of the Year Award was honored at a luncheon given for all DAR winners in the area. The Miss Teenage Citizen award was won by a Skyline senior. The contest was sponsored by the Montclair Recreation Center to honor an outstanding senior girl and give her the chance to go on in further competition. Qualifications for both DAR and Miss Teenage Citizen included a good service record, leadership in school clubs, and cooperation with students.

Winning a $100 award and $100 for traveling expenses, a junior was honored at a governor's luncheon and was flown to Washington D.C. for the finals in an essay contest on employment of the handicapped. The Bay Area Engineers honored a senior boy with a $400 award for outstanding performance in the field of engineering and electronics.

An outstanding senior girl received the Betty Crocker Homemaker Award, a national award given to the highest scoring girl in the field of Homemaking in every school. Another nation-wide foundation has awarded the status of semi-finalist to two unexcelled senior boys. The very desirable scholarship was given by the Hertz Foundation.

The Exchange Club of Oakland sponsored a contest for most outstanding senior boy and girl of the year. Candidates were judged on their scholarship and citizenship records and on amount of school and community service. Coordinating all scholarships and awards was Mrs. Marjorie Beach.

Scholarship winners from various colleges are Pam Scott-Linfield; Denise Hodges-USC and Nancy Tague-Rice.

Scholarships are reward for many worthy students

Many students were chosen as outstanding in their fields at Skyline and were given the chance to go on in further competition. Others were award winners or honored with certificates of achievement. Among these latter award winners were California Scholarship Federation Sealbearers. Students achieved this status and gold seal on their diploma by being members of CSF for four semesters, one of which must have been in their senior year. A junior girl was honored by being chosen representative to Girls' State, a program held at Squaw Valley for the purpose of developing a deeper interest in the problems of government. Girls formed a mock government electing Congressmen and a governor.

Six juniors were nominees from Skyline for the National Council of Teachers of English Achievement Award. Students were Barbara Winslow, Ann Scherer, Ron Goetz, Greg Bowers, Doug Bartholomew, and Steve Brittenham. Two American Field Service finalists were Philip Chan and Shari Smith.

Skyline had a National Achievement finalist. All Skyline semi-finalists became finalists in the National Merit Scholarship program. The seven finalists were judged on the basis of their NM test scores, one other examination and teacher-counselor evaluation.

In rugged competition between other outstanding Skyline economics students, a winner and one alternate emerged to go on in regional competition for a sizable scholarship. The contest was sponsored by the Gemco Department Store Foundation in hopes of developing better business and economic consciousness in students and future businessmen.

Chosen as outstanding by faculty and counselors, the Bank of America awarded plaques to four general field winners. With the chance to win $50 to $1000 in regional competition, the students participated in group discussion before a panel of judges. Winners were judged on grades, activities.

KRON hosts concert night

During the year's music season, the Philharmonic orchestra made its television debut on a KRON TV Special. Leading the orchestra was the conductor, Harold Farberman, of the Oakland Symphony. One of the many selections the orchestra performed was Peter Tschaikovsky's Nutcraker Suite, which they introduced at the annual Christmas Concert.

The Symphonic Band was featured at the seventh annual Winter Band Concert, where they played many selections from Vivaldi. They also performed at the Invitational State Band Festival and the graduation exercises.

Music clubs work together in creating joyous sounds

Each of the annual musical programs was a joint effort of Skyline's choir, Girls' Glee, Cleftdwellers and Small Ensemble; all under the direction of Mrs. Joanne McKray.

Largest music group at Skyline, the choir performed for the Montclair Women's club and took part in a holiday program given at Breuner's in downtown Oakland.

Girls' Glee went caroling at a number of convalescent homes throughout the holidays and sang for the annual spring concert.

Small Ensemble gave many performances outside of school including a program for the Easter Seal Bazaar at Lake Merritt Hotel.

Mainly concerned with publicity for Skyline musical events, Cleftdwellers, along with members of the music department, held fund raising activities to purchase recording equipment for the various programs.

Cadet corp places first

Reserve Officers' Training Corp, now in its fifth year, regained its honor star from the sixth annual army district's Federal Inspection. Among many appearances, the drill team marched in the Christmas Parade in Saratoga in which it placed second of all drill teams in the Bay Area and placed first in drill teams of Oakland. Competition within Skyline's A,B, and C companies always added superb skill to its members.

Honor club adds duties

Presiding at assemblies, games and other student activities, the Spartan Service Society added to its schedule of duties the supervision of the "Mill". The honor society also sponsored and supervised the annual Sadie Hawkins Day race, and it presented a Hillbilly dance the following evening. During spring, a party was held at which time the sponsors, Mr. Lawrence Mattal and Mr. Russ Robbins awarded trophies to the fall president, Russ Ratto, the spring president, Karen Schmidt (first SSS girl president) and the most inspirational member.

Divers create new club

Skyline Divers' Club, originated by students Doug Chew and Greg Geddes, went on organized dives to Fort Ross, Carmel, Van Dam, and Monterey. Adventure, night diving, ecology clean-up dives, marine biology experiments, and spearfishing were topics on the agenda for each dive. At school the problems of new equipment, films, techniques, and the job of setting up scuba classes for interested students were tackled. The club was sponsored by campus control supervisor, Mr. Joe Williams and teacher, Mr. Bob Ciremele.

Ski Club members traveled twice to Sugar Bowl and Bear Valley. Excursions were organized by students Bruce Kadden, Brian Wiele, Carol Simon, and Robin Burns. Mrs. Juliette Dunham and Mr. Clarence Stevenson sponsored the club and its activities.

Play Day was the main event for the Equestrian Club members. Under the sponsorship of Mrs. Charlotte Rich the club went on trail rides and picnics. Activities of the club were organized by Sue Fleming, Cathe Chorness, Diane Purdy, Roberta Termini, Lynn Rose.

Under the sponsorship of Mr. William Rader the Alpine Club traveled to Yosemite and went on hikes and clean-ups during the year.

Student efforts result in first 'International Day'

Requested by students and organized b the Human Relations Steering Committee, International Day was set up for the purpose of having students enjoy and relate to other people's ethnic cultures. Many students wore costumes from their native countries and everyone had the opportunity to buy food from several different lands. The committee was sponsored by Mrs. Mildred Marcus.

The group continued with its program of tutoring at Roosevelt and Parker Junior Highs.

Black Student Union, sponsored by Mr. Richard Campbell, also joined in International Day. Members were dressed in the mode of their African heritage and cooked soul food to sell during lunch. BSU also participated in the Homecoming parade and put on a dance as a fund raising activity.

Karate demonstrations on Senior Lawn were an Asian Student Union activity on International Day. Selling Chinese and Japanese food during lunch, ASU members were among the most colorfully dressed on campus. The group, sponsored by Mr. James Wong, took a trip to visit racial centers.

Discussing the problem of organization of the February event were Gerald Walters, a guest, Wendell Smith, Karen Carney, Sheila Barlin, and Denise Jeffrey.

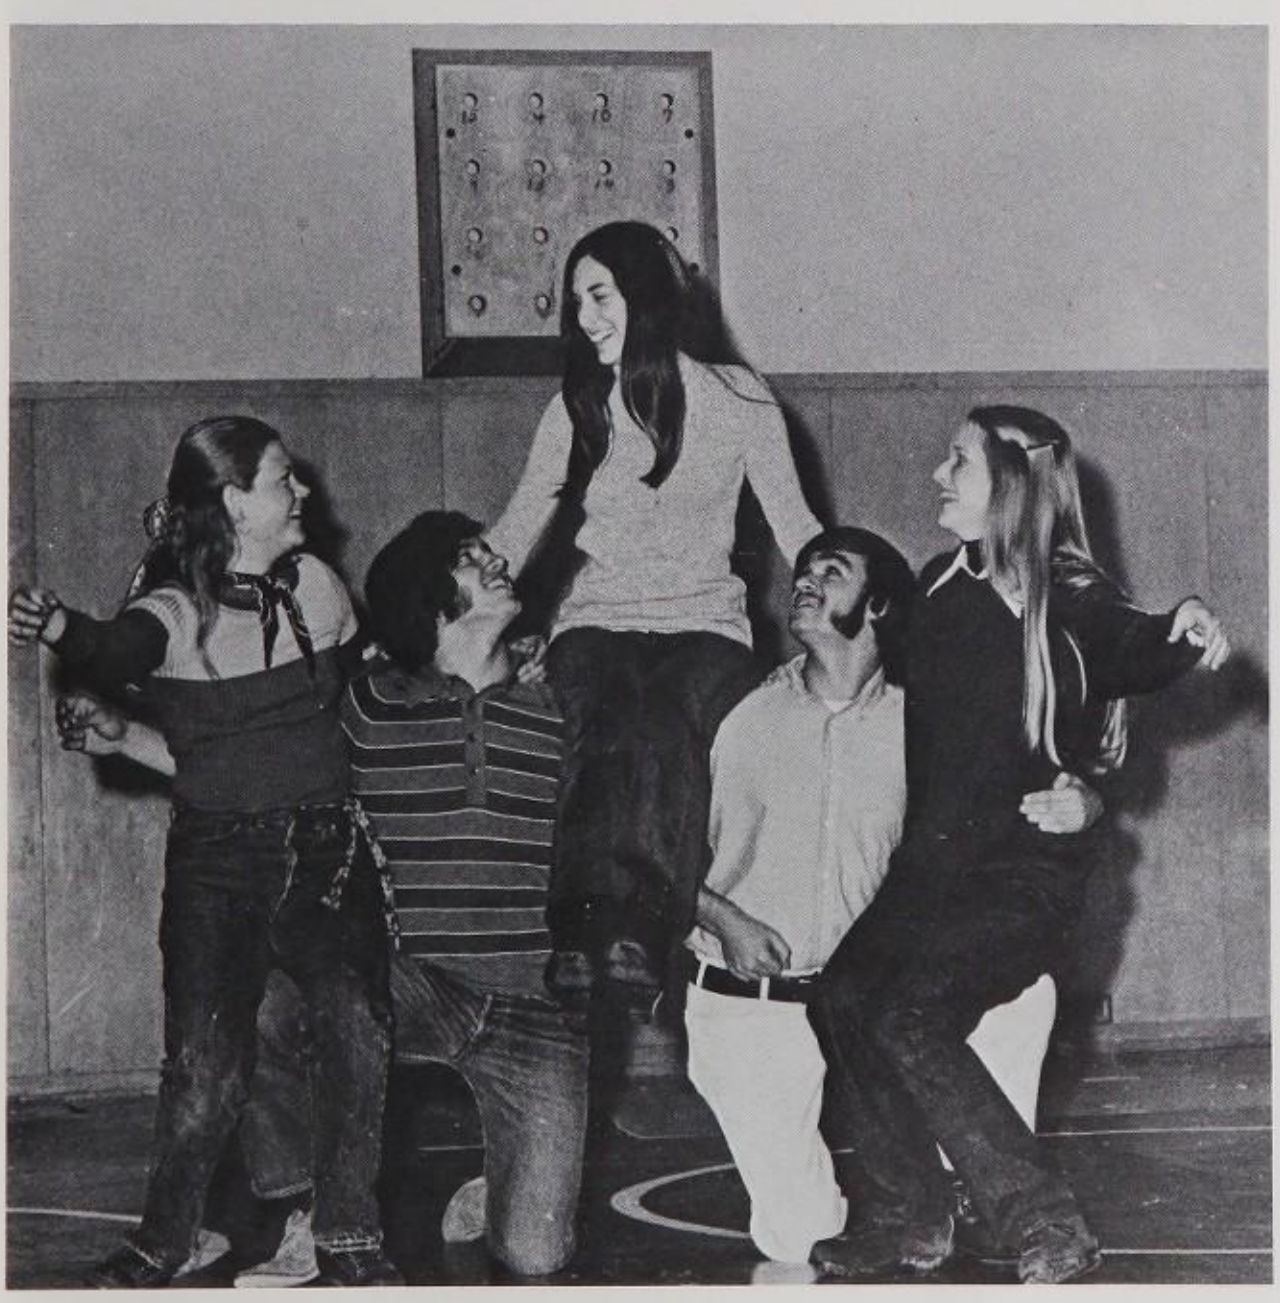
After school programs attract students



Governing the girls' gym activities, the Girls' Athletic Association cabinet coordinated the after school sports, dance and gymnastics program. GAA sponsored a project in which sweat shirts and pants were sold to raise money to purchase uniforms and extra equipment. Part of the money went toward awards given at a banquet in June, arranged by GAA sponsor, Miss Helen Baker. Patches, medals and trophies were awarded on the basis of points received for various extra-curricular activities and outstanding performances in gym throughout the year.

Also gathering points were members of the girls' gymnastics club. The club consisted largely of members of the gymnastics team but Mrs. Carmela DiGrazia opened the club to all gymnasts. Club members received GAA points by attending clinics, selling brownies, and participating in meets.

Performing in the spring musical "Fiddler on the Roof," the Dance Workshop was composed of girls from Miss Elyse Dukatz' dance classes as well as other girls and boys who were interested in performing with actors and singers in the collective effort of "Fiddler on the Roof." The group, somewhat short on males, also participated with the music department in the Spring Concert.

People relate ways, culture

Members of the Foreign Students Club were able to present many new cultural ideas to the student body this year. Miss Elenore Lazansky is the group sponsor. Bible Club is sponsored by Mr. David Peterson, business teacher. Many religious experiences were exchanged this year during the bi-weekly meetings of the club.

By holding candy sales throughout the school year, the American Field Service members were able to send many students abroad. The club is co-sponsored by Mrs. Laverne Fleming, and Mrs. Gail Johnson, both history teachers.

Varied clubs answer need

Sponsored by Mrs. Jean Cosad, the California Scholarship Federation is comprised of students showing outstanding scholastic ability.

With the help of sponsor, Mrs. Vera White, the members of Math Club worked this year with computers in order to broaden their mathematical spectrum of sciences.

By touring college campuses, the Scholarship Club was able to get a glimpse of what college life is like. The club is sponsored by Mrs. Marjorie Beach, Mrs. Juanita Thomas.

Club tours medical centers

Distributive Education Club of America was involved with marketing and merchandising. Members put into practice the techniques of selling, learned in numerous field trips to department stores and advertising agencies.

Film Club gave several noontime showings of old time comedy classics to raise money for the rental of other films and to buy film for the clubs own movie making projects.

Berkeley Medical Center was the destination of the Future Physicans Club's first activity. The club, sponsored by Wilbert Yuen, went to surrounding hospitals and medical centers in the remaining months. In April, a Health Careers Conference was opened to all students interested in medical careers. Successful people in health careers, lectured, exhibitied, and showed pertinent films.

Microphones, loud speakers and address systems were concerns of Mr. William Rader's Public Address Crew. The audio effects for "Dracula", "Fiddler on the Roof", the many assemblies, and the sports events were engineered by this same able group.

Sponsor of the Sex Education Club is Mr. Richard Campbell. Meeting every week, members discussed planned parenthood along with the idea of zero population growth.

Public Address Crew members are Kent McNab, Rick Taylor, Al Siver, Edwin Wong, Steve Mark, Roland Lee.

DECA members are Kevin McGee, Tom Slater, Linda George, Carol Dardari, Vanessa Holloway, Mauri Montgomery, Judy Land, Nancy Joseph, Mara Wilcher, Rick Carrothers. In March DECA held its annual breakfast, where Rick Carrothers, Nancy Harris, and Joyce Harris received awards.

Art work, magazine, skit exhibit student creativity

Along with sharing their artistic ability with the school, the Art Club created posters for other outside events such as banner displayed at the 50 anniversary dinner of Oakland Chapter DeMolay.

Expression Art and Literary Board put out its annual magazine, "Expression", compiled from the selected poems, stories and drawings of the students.

Thespians helped make the fall term play, "Dracula", a success by selling tickets and providing refreshments. They also filmed the production with the new movie camera. Mr. Rawley Farnsworth was sponsor of both Thespians and stage crew.

Designing and building the scenery and props for the fall term play, "Dracula", and the spring term play, "Fiddler on the Roof" was the stage crew's main project during the year. Stage crew members also helped backstage.

New group adopts child

Zonta Club was involved in various activities during the school year. Under the direction of Miss Wilma Lorentz and Mrs. Kathryn Allen, the club ushered at school functions, entertained at a convalescent hospital, and raised money for the Cerebral Palsey Center. Kelly Ferro was president.

Save the Children, a club formed in December and sponsored by Mrs. Rosemary Eagan, sent money for Indian children on a reservation.

Pep Club members promoted spirit in their red and white outfits by selling refreshments and cheering at basketball and football games. Mrs. Helen Middleton was sponsor.

Ecology Club members wrote letters to their legislatures, urging them to save the wolves and polar bears. The club, sponsored by Miss Helen Wheeler, went on a trip with the Audubon Society to the San Joaquin Delta to make a study of waterfowl.

Save the children members are Selene Johnson, Debbie Stewart, Sally Lowel, Sue Janner, and Janice Vickers. They voted to adopt an American Indian child.

Fall Associates Council members wrote the new school constitution which was put into effect for the first time by the spring Student Association officers. Under the leadership of fall Student Association president, Wayne Batavia, and spring Student Association president, Bob Breilh, the student government was successfully transformed from the original House System to the new and promising Class System of government. Associates Council is now composed of delegates from sophomore, junior, and senior class councils and class presidents.

Houses reign for last time

For the last time, student government was based on the house system. In December, students voted to change to the class system. Fall house officers were the last ones; the class system went into effect at the beginning of the second semester.

Chi members sold caramel apples to raise money to give to the East Bay Center for the Blind. They also sold "smile" buttons and gave away balloons on their spirit day. Along with Chi, Epsilon co-sponsored the successful KYA Oneders'-faculty basketball game. Members sold "trick or treat" candy for the Kidney Foundation at Halloween time.

On its spirit day, Delta sponsored a pyramid building contest. Members had a cake sale to raise money. Omega sponsored its second annual pie-eating contest, and the post-Halloween apple-bobbing contest was popular.

Tricycle racing during all three lunches prevailed on Omicron spirit day. Money raised from sales was used for a scholarship fund. Phi spirit day was highlighted with tug-of-war contests during all lunches. Also popular with the students was a balloon sale.

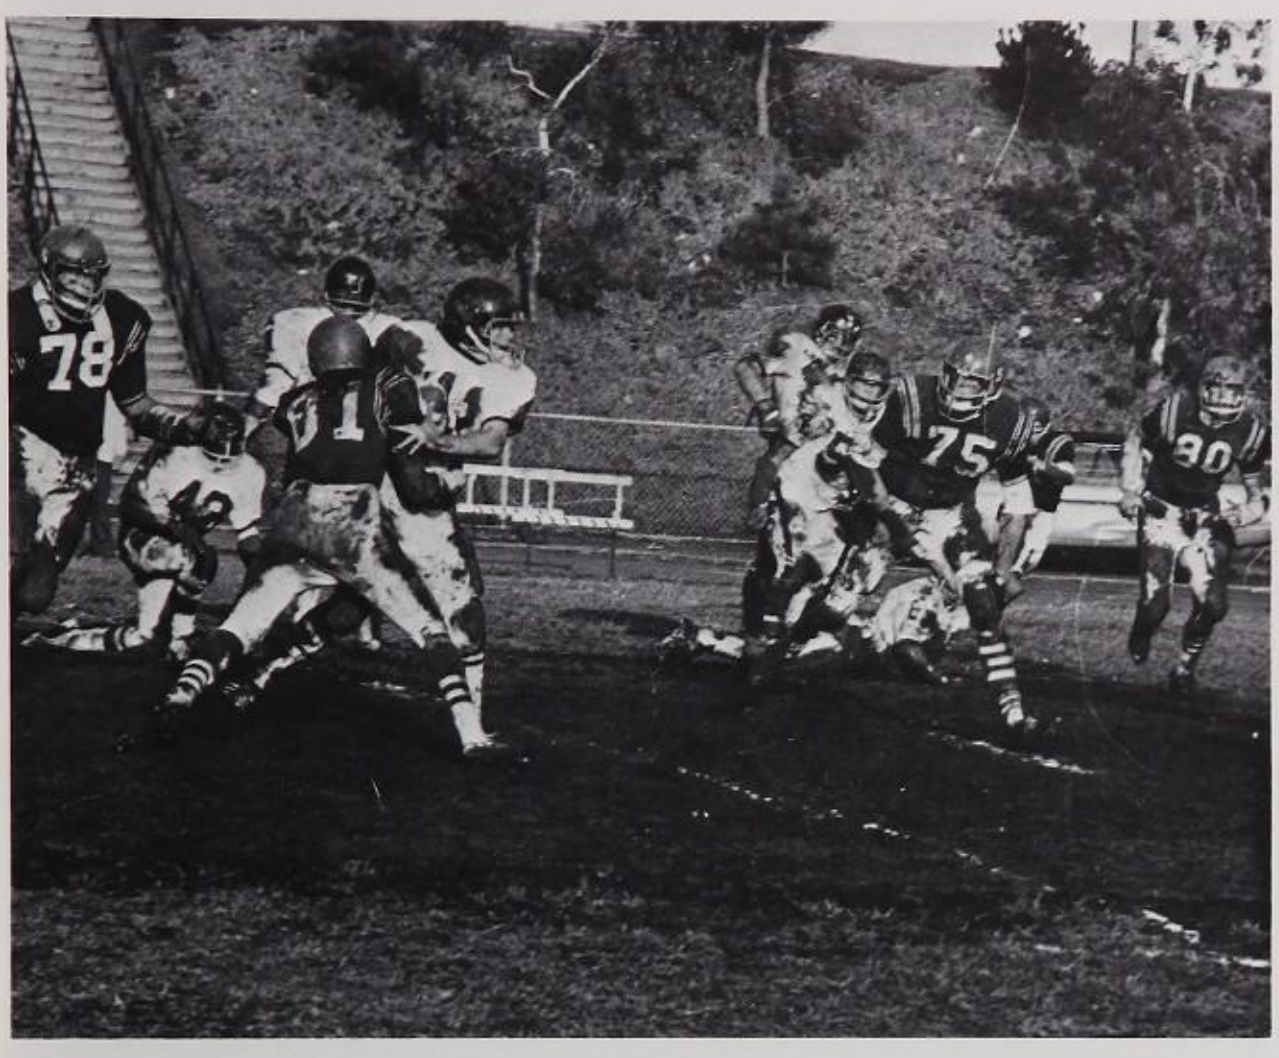
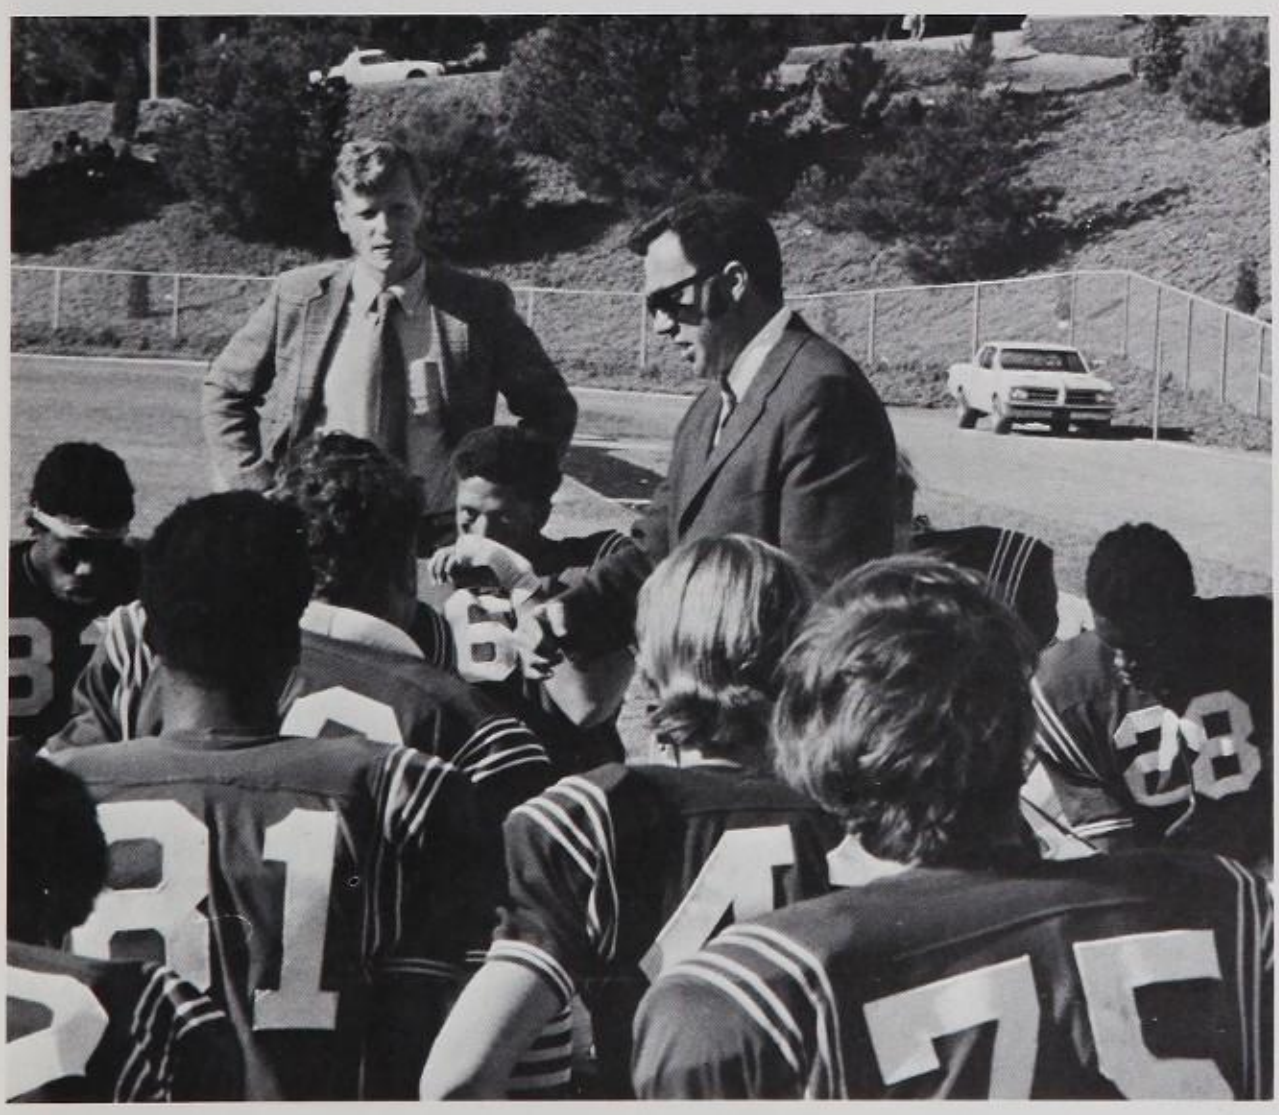
All-city linebacker Paul Nottingham (63) and Russ Ratto (86), demolish the Castlemont running back for a loss as Brent Thrams (41) comes in to finish him off.

Ten year hex now broken, football team beats Oakland





Highlighting the season against arch rival Oakland High, the Titans stomped the Wildcats 24 to 6. The win enabled the Titans to tie for second place with Oakland in the final Oakland Athletic League standings.

The first quarter ended in a 0 to 0 tie. Mark Palmore, playing for the injured Rusty Keyes, opened the scoring for Skyline with a three yard run in the second quarter. The first half ended 6 to 0 when the Titan defense stopped a Wildcat drive holding them on the one yard line for three plays.

Two plays after receiving the second half kickoff, Palmore took a pitch around left end and rambled 58 yards to score. All-City halfback, Gene Howard, scored on an eight yard run in the fourth quarter. Brent Thrams ended the scoring and Oakland's winning streak over Skyline when he intercepted a pass in the final minutes and returned it 58 yards for a touchdown.

Traveling to Piedmont to open the season, the Titans avenged last year's defeat by trouncing the Highlanders 32 to 16. In the pre-season home opener, the Tamalpais Indians were skinned 27 to 6 in a game highlighted by three scoring passes by All-City quarterback, Donn Falaschi to All-City end Don Walden. Closing the pre-season against the Hillsdale and Napa teams, the Titans were defeated 41 to 12 and 24 to 8.

Opening the OAL season at Skyline, the team was upset 26 to 22, by Fremont, the eventual league champs. Undaunted by opening game loss, the Titans travelled to Tech, winning in last 10 seconds, 22 to 16.

Hosting the Castlemont Knights on October 29, the Titans were upset 18 to 16. Determined to even their record, the team traveled to Mack seeking their second OAL win. The first half ended with a Falaschi to Walden scoring pass tying the score 6 to 6. During half time Coach Tony Fardella inspired the team to play their best. They responded by receiving the second half kickoff and marching the length of the field to score. Skyline notched its second OAL victory 21 to 14 which set the scene for the showdown victory over Oakland.

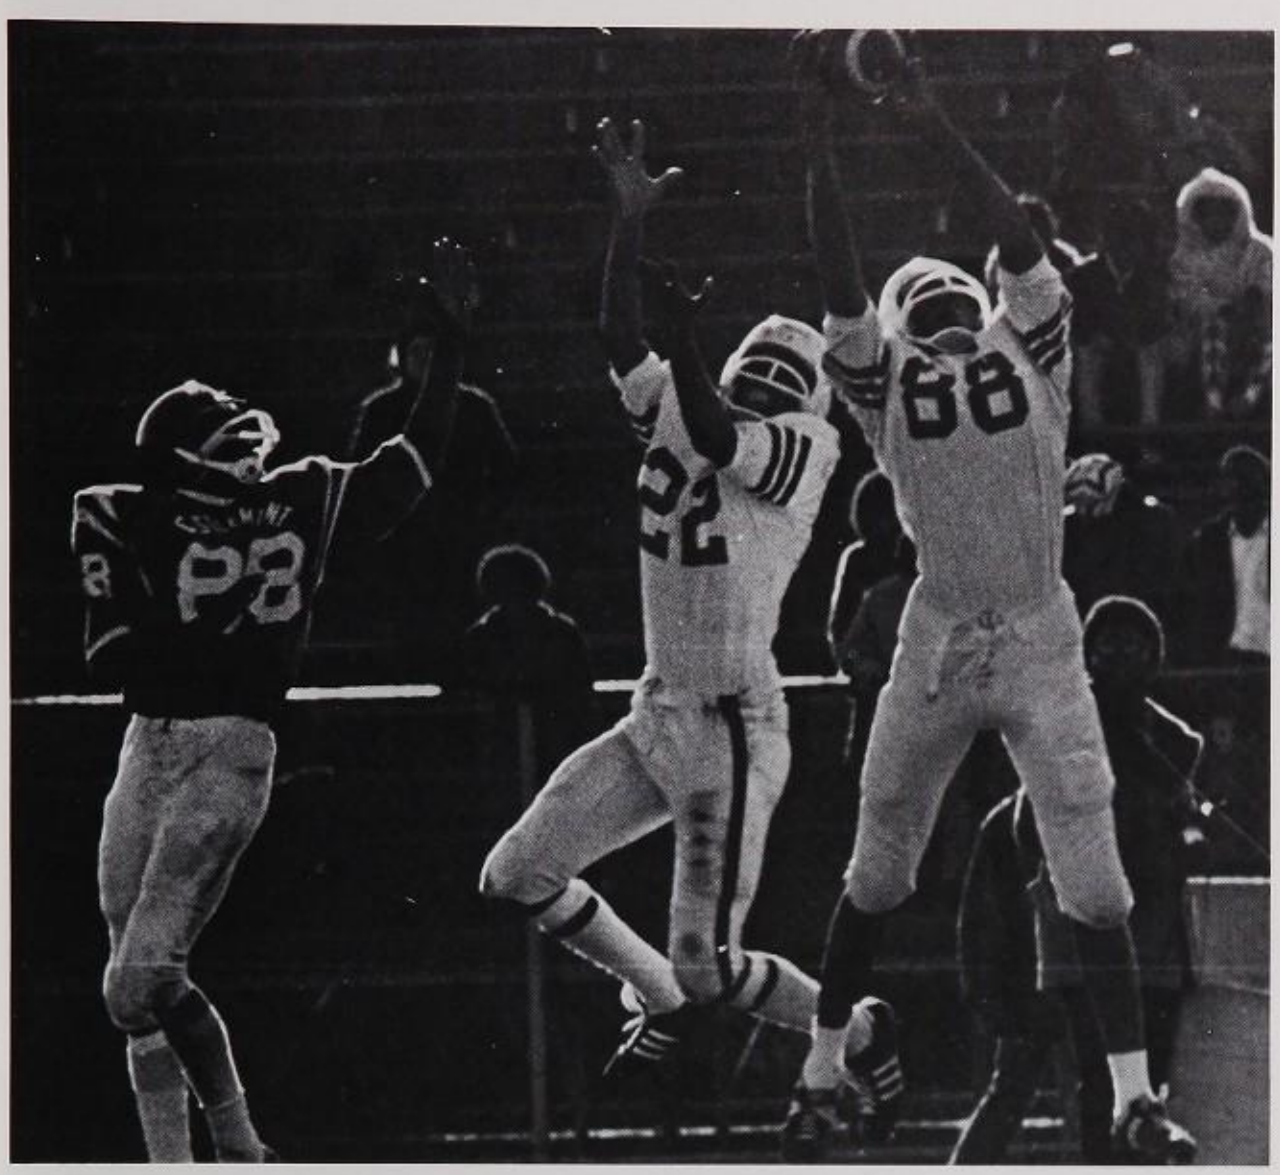
Junior varsity bests record



Shutting out Piedmont and Tamalpais in pre-season, the junior varsity gridders were on their way to a successful season which ended with their best record ever. In their third pre-season game the J.V.'s dropped Napa by a score of 20-6.

The JV's were led during the OAL season by a tenacious defense and an aggressive offense. In the opening game, the offense led the JV's to an 18-16 win over Fremont. Their second game was against Tech. With a strong running game the J.V.'s beat Tech by the score of 22-8.

In their next two games the J.V. defense put consecutive shutouts on Castlemont (20-0) and McClymonds (23-0). With their offense and defense doing well their next game was against rival Oakland.

Going into this game the J.V.'s were 7-0, but mistakes and turnovers gave Oakland the championship and the win over Skyline, the final score 24-15. The loss had ended all hopes for an undefeated season. The JV's 4-1 record gave them second place in league standings and a 7-1 including pre-season.

Harriers secure eighth title

Dominating cross country for eight consecutive seasons, the Titan Harriers captured another Oakland Athletic League championship. With a strong varsity and a promising junior varsity team, the Harriers showed their dominance over the league again.

Leading the Varsity team this season were returning lettermen Sam Palmatier, Dwayne Long, Rex Weichhart, Terry Nelson and Dave Moles. The other varsity members include Douglas MacNeil and Darrel Washington.

In the final meet seniors Rex Weichhart and Dwayne Long led the Titans to their eighth OAL title. The junior varsity took the championship by taking the first sixteen places in the final meet. The cross country team is coached by Dave Peterson and Paul Berger. The team worked out rain or shine.

Hoopsters take tourney for third straight season

For the third consecutive season, the basketball team came away with the Del Valle tournament trophy. The Titans opened the tourney with a 66 to 64 victory over Harry Ellis High in Richmond.

In the semi-final game, Skyline met a fine Vallejo team which proved to be a worthy opponent. The Titans found themselves behind by 6 at halftime, and fought back to tie the score at the end of regulation time at 68 all, forcing the game into overtime. The score was tied at 72 with less than 10 seconds left, when Keith Greenaway poured in a 15 foot jumper to cap the Skyline comeback.

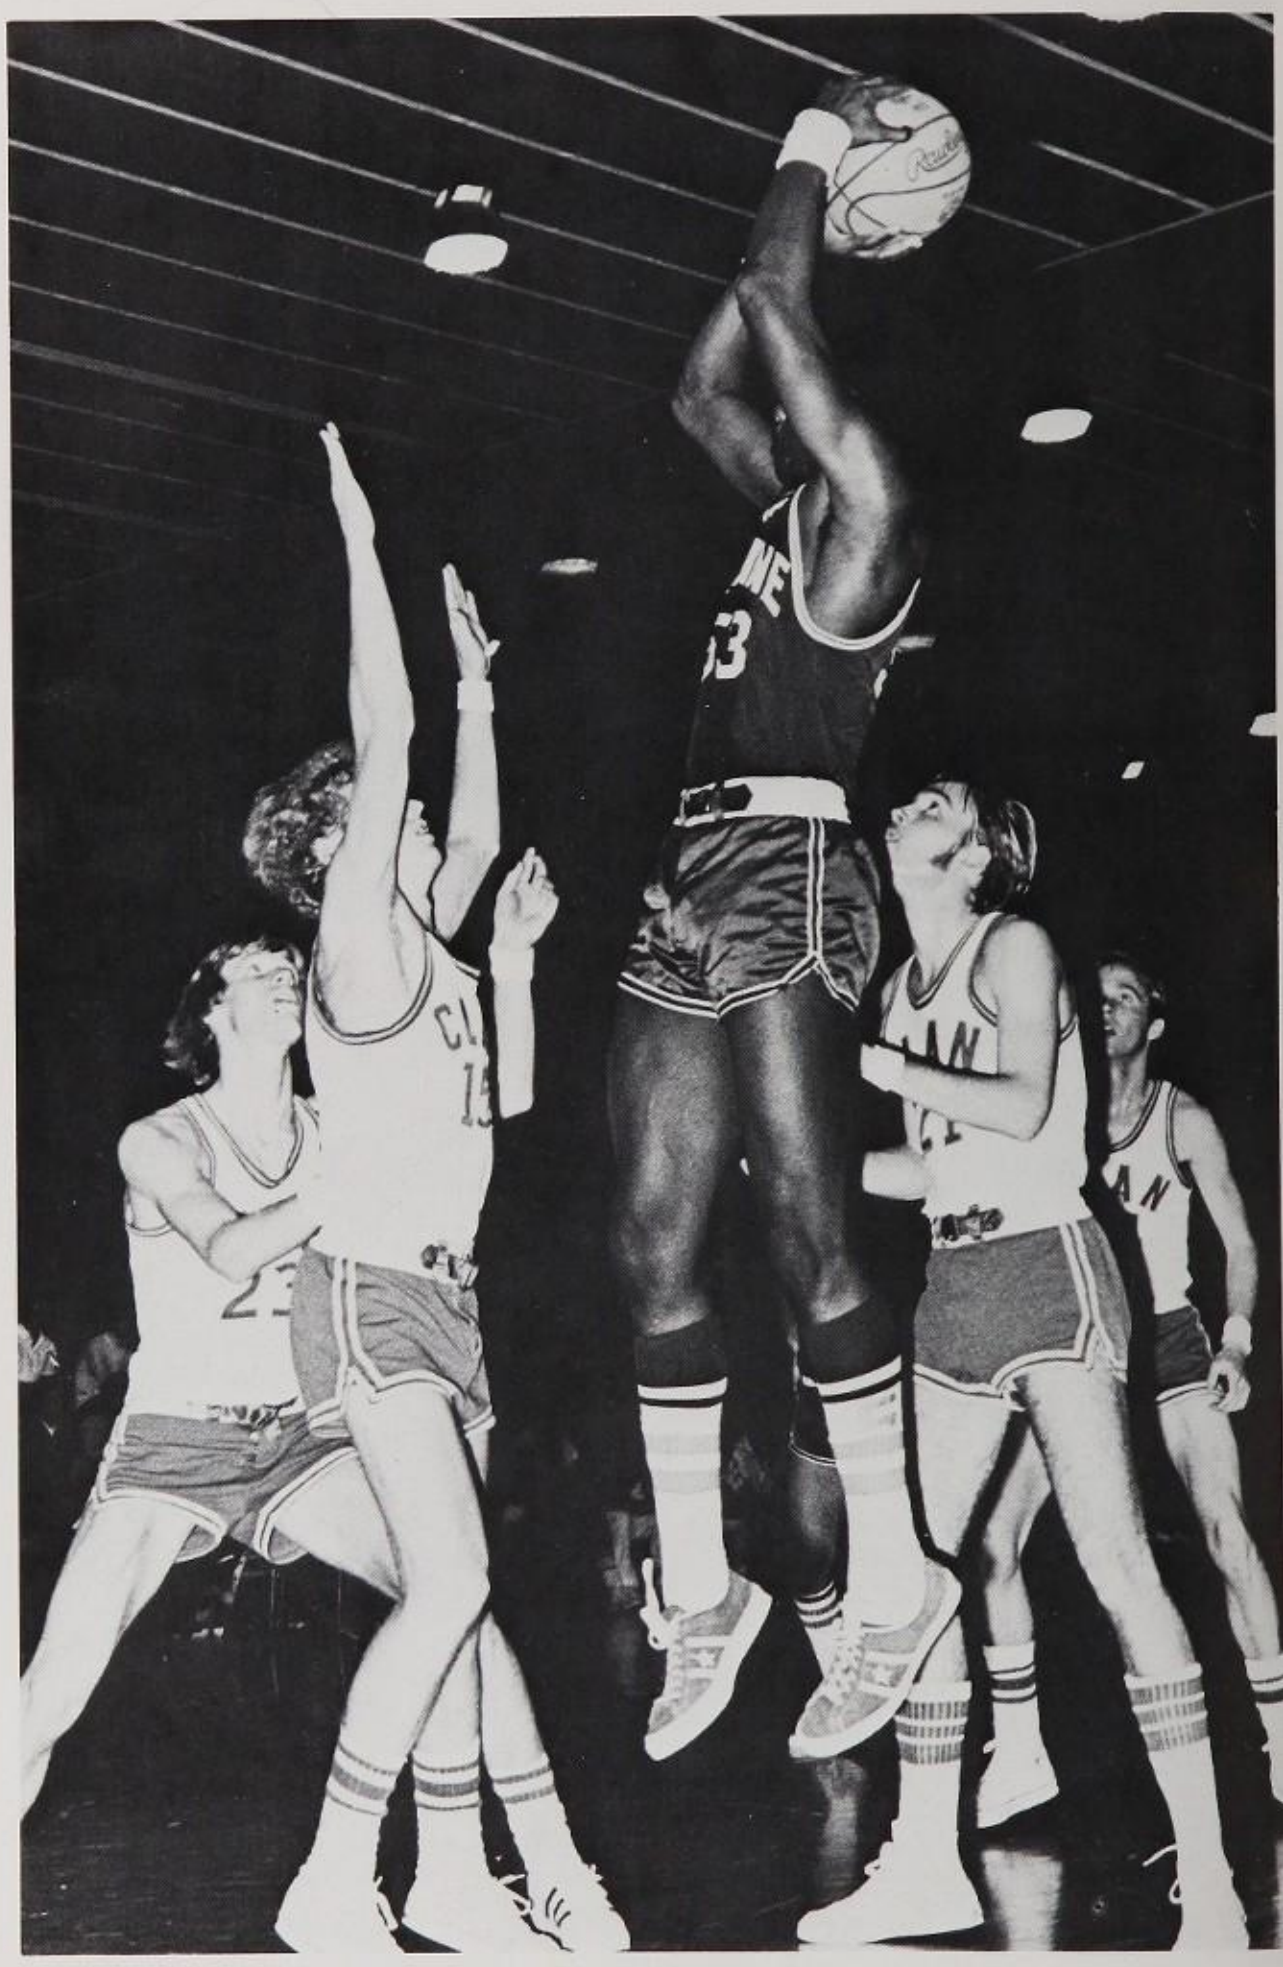
In the championship game, once again the Hoopsters found themselves behind, but in the presence of Piedmont High and by six points at the beginning of the last quarter. Knowing that the final eight minutes meant the title, the Titans pulled together and played great defense to pull out a 74-73 victory, and the championship record standing at 5 and 0. The Titans closed the preseason with a 58-55 victory over a tough George Washington High team.

Traveling to Mack to open the Oakland Athletic League, the team shot over 50 percent, only to have the Warriors shoot better. The Titans scored their season high of 81 points, though losing by 6. Skyline dropped their next three games to Tech, Castlemont, and Fremont. Arch rival Oakland High was Skyline's fifth OAL opponent. The Titans led the whole way only to be caught at 74. With three seconds left, Most Improved player Brent Turner pumped in a 30 footer to win it for the Titans. The win was followed by two poor losing performances to Mack and Tech.

Determined to prove that Skyline was no pushover, the Titans traveled to Castlemont on February 18 to play the Knights. The Titans led for over half the game only to have key players foul out, thus negating Skyline's hope for an upset.

League champion Fremont was the next to last opponent. Once again the team's inability to put together two good halves in one game caused the Titans to lose 47 to 60. In the final game Coach Fred Noel played all members of the team. After leading by 5 at halftime, the team went cold in the second half to lose 45-58.

Seniors on the team were Robert Cooper, Jack Nelson, Tim Grant, Keith Greenaway, Leroy Leonard, John Gordon, Stan Howard, Most Inspirational player Bob Breilh, and Most Improved player Brent Turner.



All-tournament player, Stan Howard, leaves four Piedmont players flat-footed as he goes up for two points.

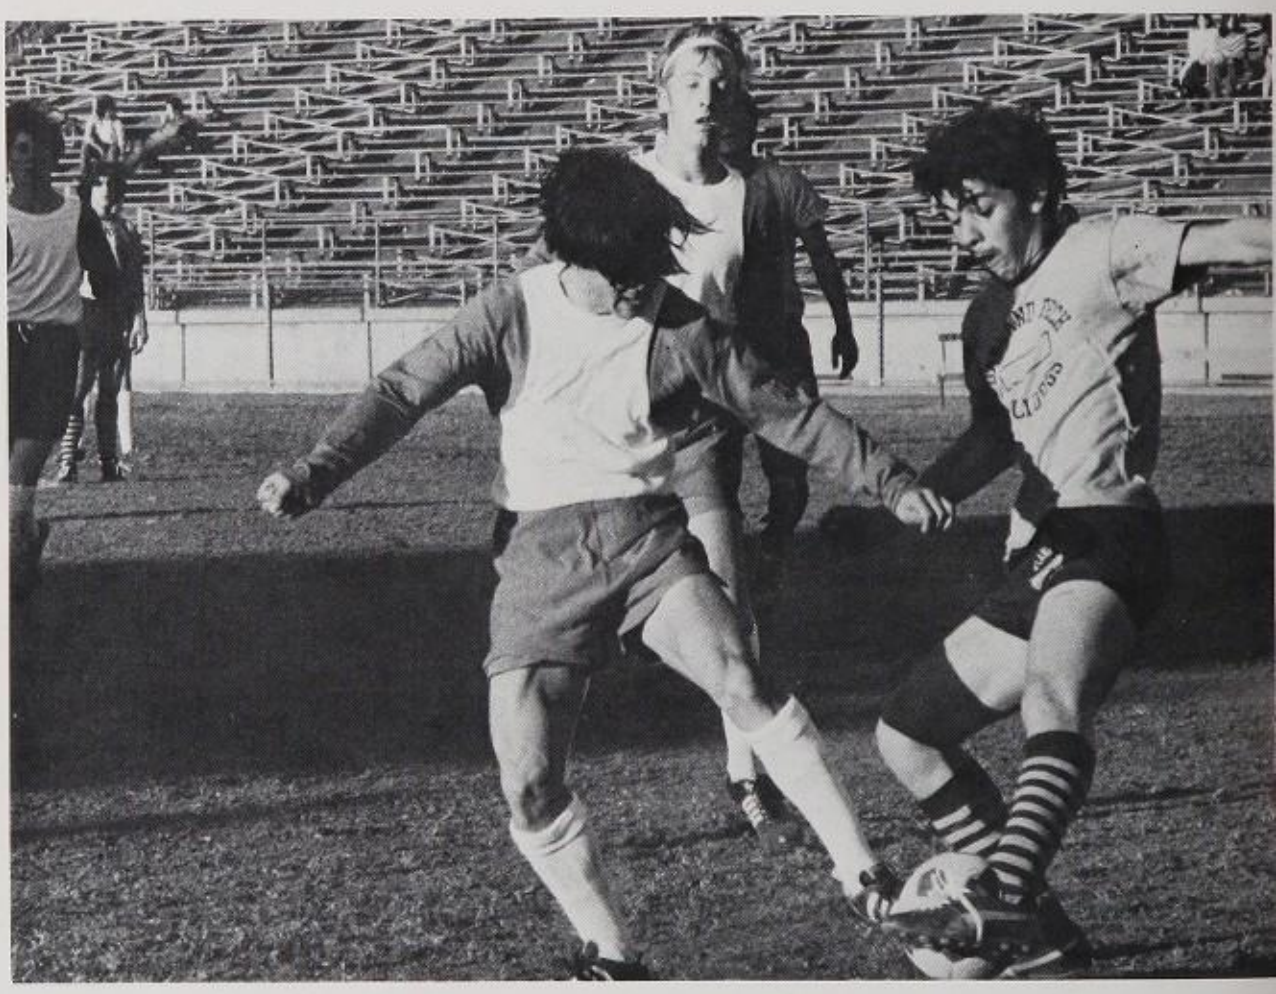
Young team grabs second

From a season opening loss to defending champion Oakland Technical High, Skyline's soccer team bounced back to finish second place in the Oakland Athletic League. The Titans leading scorers this year were Ron Floriani and Duain Anderson with 12 points each. Defense was headed by Juan Briones at center fullback and Omar Suer at goalie. Selected for the All-City first team were five Titans; Duain Anderson at halfback, Ron Floriani and Leland Heiner at forwards, Juan Briones fullback, and Omar Suer goalie.



Ron Floriani '73 advanced the ball upfield for Skyline during the Oakland Athletic League opener on Nevermber 13. Final score was Technical 5, Skyline 3.

Dave Kashiwase '73 steals the ball from Technical opponent as Herbie Schmidt '74 and Duain Anderson '72 approach. After opening season loss Skyline took second.

Golfers take tenth crown in athletic league meets

Returning from an outstanding season, Skyline's golf team dominated Oakland Athletic League action and non-league play as well. Last year, Skyline won its ninth championship and this year the tenth was easily taken. The team practiced everyday at the Lake Chabot municipal golf course at the end of Golf Links Road where Coach Larry Edwards was an asset to the team. Returning lettermen were Dave Galeria, Doug Murphy, Randy Rushing, Roger Armstrong, Sam Retelas, and Paul Victo Rino.

Three take league titles

Led by Jeff O'Donnell, Gary Hunter, Mitch Wainwright, and Nick Lenhart, the wrestling team finished the season with a 2-3 win-loss record in the Oakland Athletic League.

OAL season opened with a match against McClymonds. The Titans dropped a close one losing 36-33. As the season continued, the grapplers lost the next two matches against Castlemont and Fremont. They surged back winning the last two matches from Technical High and arch rival Oakland.

Skyline also had one of the finest heavyweight divisions in the OAL. The upperweights were led by Gary Hunter (heavyweight), Jeff O'Donnell (194 lbs), Mitch Wainwright (178 lbs). These three wrestlers dominated the Oal by going undefeated throughout the season. The three were invited to compete in the state finals at Cal-State Hayward.

Triple jump is new event

After losing many graduating lettermen, the 1972 track team broke in many new sophomores and juniors in order to fill all events.

This year's strength, as usual, was in the long distance races. To lead the field of long distance cindermen were Rex Weichardt, Dave Moles, Duane Booth, and Terry Nelson. In the mid-distance events, Harry Fews, Kent Mulkey, Pieteor Visser, and Dave McPeak led the 880 and 440 events in league action this year. Striving for the excellence of last year, the sprinters were led by Gene Howard, Clarence Williams, and Richard Leach.

The triple jump was a new event in OAL field action. Leading this event were Ken Beaver and Stan Howard, who also competed in the long jump. Other important figures in the field events were Greg Griffin and Bob Altmeyer (shot put), Sam Palmatier and Jim McDonald (pole vault), and Ken Beaver and Dwight Wright competing in the high jump.

Gymnasts work for title

Striving to regain the title that was lost to Castlemont last year, the Titans were led by a strong varsity team. They included all around performers Greg and Jeff Hansen; parallel bar specialists Darryl Emerson and Gerald Pinkney, with Doug and Robert Rundle on the side horse. Ring performers were Cory Franzini, Cris Wright, and Jeff Bruno, while Steve Chatham excelled on the high bar. Free exercise specialist Rod Mayne also vaulted with Steve and Darryl. Finmen try for victory

Finmen, coached by Fred Noel, entered the 1972 season with hope and promise of retaining the first place title. Swimmers completed a rugged 1971 season with an impressive 4-0 record. Since entering the league in 1964, the team has never been short of a first place. Ten returning lettermen helped make the season successful.

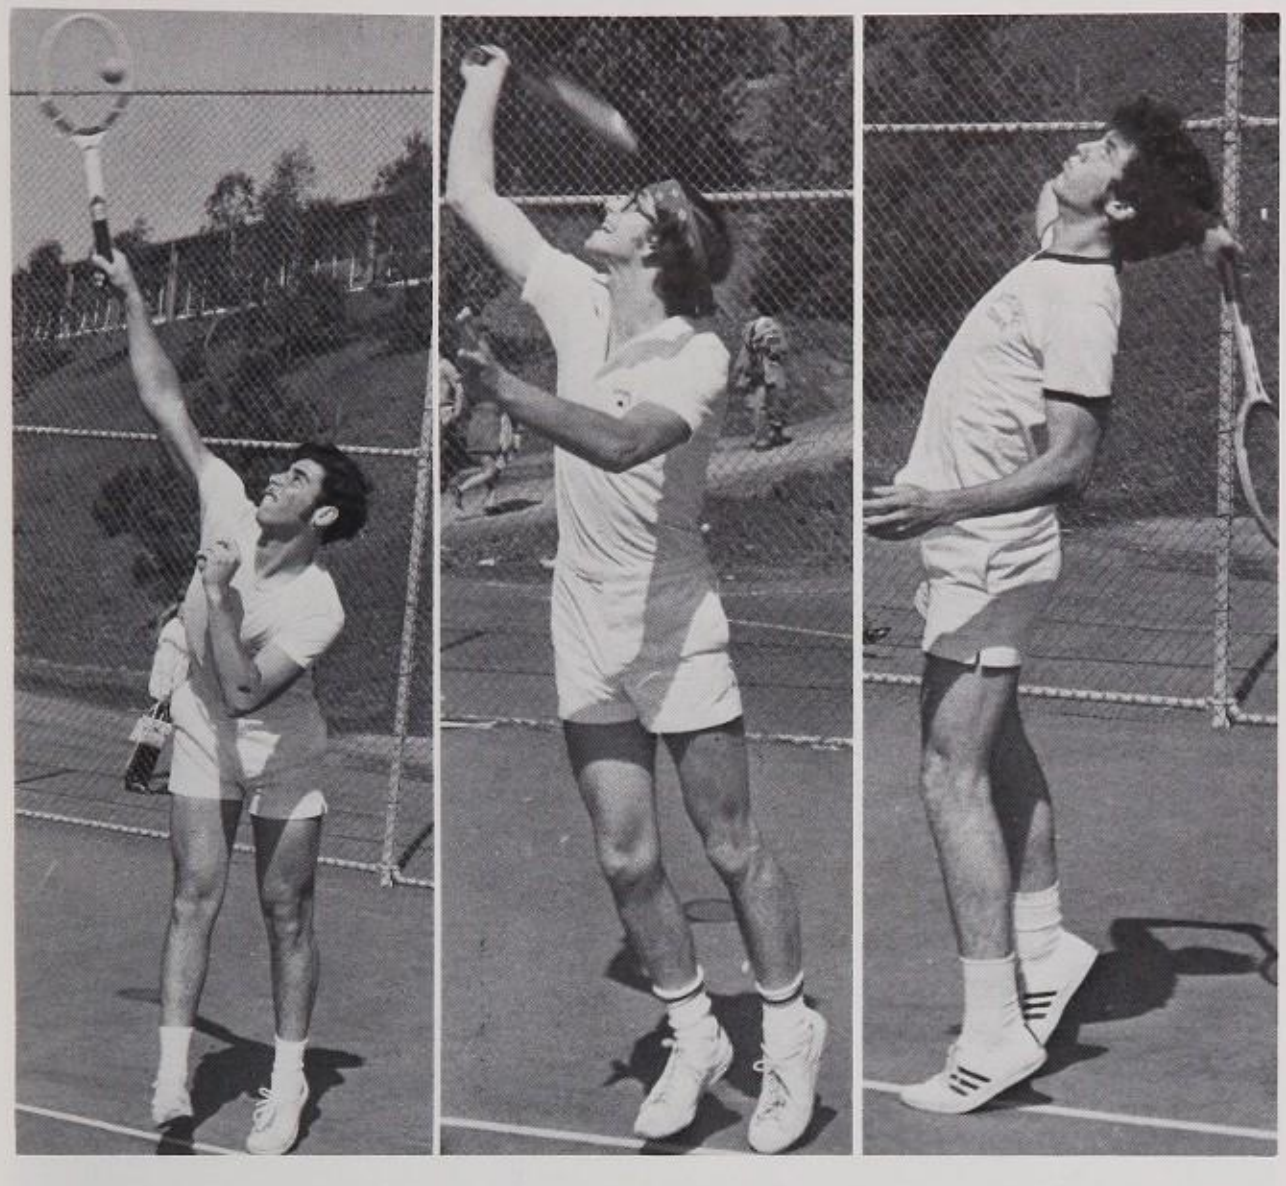
Netters show optimism



This year's tennis team entered the season with confidence and planned to defeat their arch rivals, the Oakland High Wildcats. Lettermen Tom Hanover, Steve Cohn, Bart Blumberg, Martin Steiner, Mark Smith, Bruce Kadden, Eric Bowman, Dennis Judson, and Mitch Stein returned from last season's convincing record of eight wins out of ten to try to take the Oakland Athletic League title away from first place Oakland.

Girls' crew, a member of the Lake Merritt Rowing Club, was coached by Edward Lickis and Don Powelson. The girls practiced every Monday, Wednesday and Friday after school. Often the girls had to row in early morning. Their races sent them to Long Beach, Santa Barbara, and for finals, all the way to Seattle.

Swim team is triumphant for fifth season

For the fifth consecutive year, the girls' swim team, coached by Miss Shirley Heady, won the league championship. The title was won in one meet against all the Oakland schools at Oakland High. Although Skyline is not equipped with its own pool, the swimmers found time for practicing elsewhere.

Mrs. Mary Reed (consultant in Girls' Physical Education) congratulates Nancy Taylor on her first place ribbon.

Basketball team is invited to compete in tournament

Finishing third in the Oakland Athletic League championships was the girls' basketball team. The team was coached by both Miss Barbara Tabler and Mrs. Dorothy Gray. In March the girls played in the East Bay high school invitational meet.

Softball team wins trophy

Girls softball team, coached by Miss Shirley Heady, received a permanent trophy last year for winning three championships in a row. Skyline has won four out of the five championships since they began in 1967. The team was picked in March and practiced diligently two days a week at Skyline. The girls entered the season expecting to win the Oakland Athletic League title.

Class system wins election

At the semester break the class system replaced the house system of student government. Sophomore and junior class officers planned activities to raise money for their senior years. Lower classmen held sales, conducted car washes, and planned other fund-raising activities such as a flea market and rummage sale, a skating party, and a faculty bake sale.

The first semester of the class system helped in unifying the student body. The counselors advised each of the three classes. Mr. Henry Bianchi and Mr. Martin Jemo advised the seniors, Mrs. Juanita Thomas and Mrs. Faye Smith assisted the juniors, while Mrs. Marjorie Beach and Miss Valorie Brenan led sophomores in fund-raising projects.

BELOW: Newly elected secretary, Karen Haag, treasurer, Stacey Baba, and judge, Lise Stampfli, each have hopes for accomplishment and success.

Culminating an era for some, while starting a new one for others the class of '72 graduated with hopes and expectations for their future. The unforgettable year was headed by senior class president, Bart Blumberg, with the aid of his fellow officers. They organized the senior picnic, the assembly, the night affair, and climaxed the year by transporting over four hundred and fifty graduates to Disneyland on June 2.

Class of '72 often found itself with such an exuberant amount of spirit, that the lower classmen were often seen stuck in the "drain" on senior lawn. This same spirit was seen on the field of Piedmont High, in the stands of the Homecoming game, in the bleachers of the Del Valle Tournament, and on the mound of the baseball diamond.

ABOVE: Busy trying to write down all the ideas, Nancy Vickers, secretary, gave much of her time to the class.

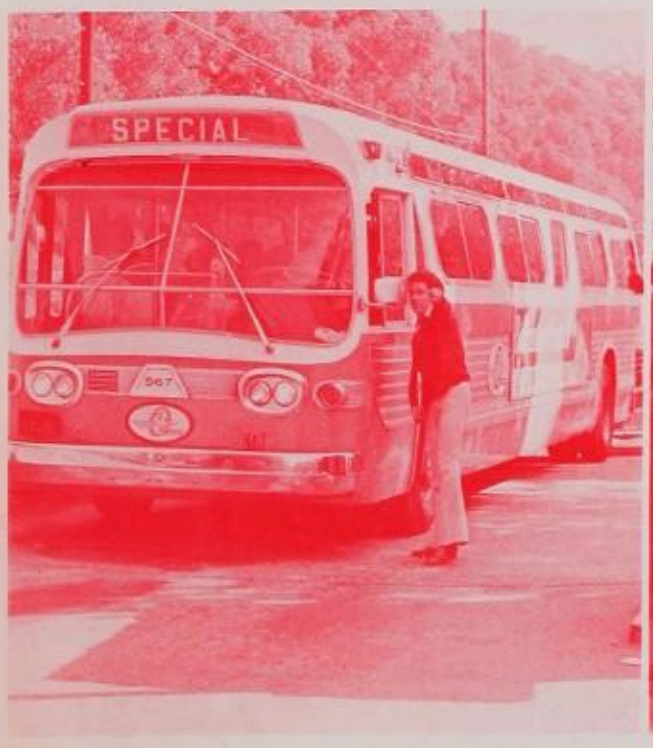
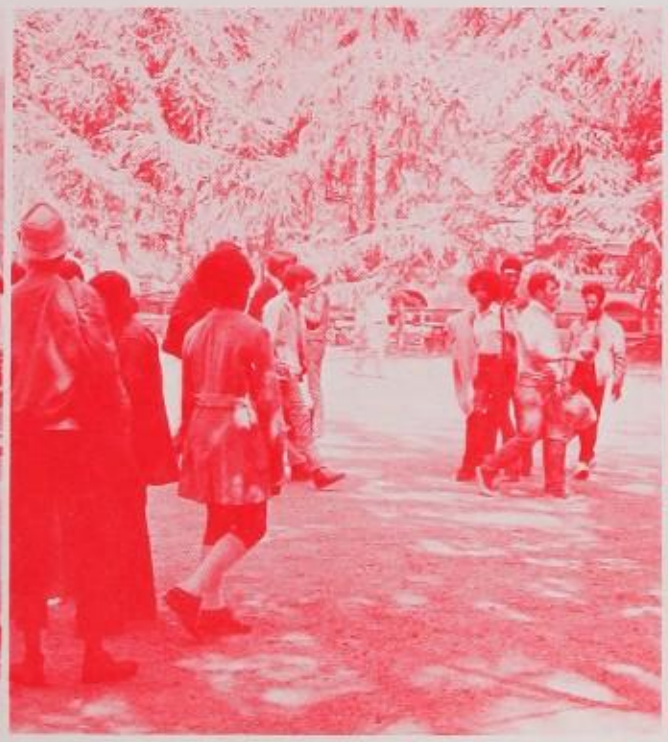
Seniors enjoy picnic from beginning to end

Traveling to an undisclosed destination, seniors were kept guessing for more than two hours, during the long bus ride on October 7, to the annual senior picnic. The "mystery" location turned out to be the Adobe Creek Country Club in Los Altos.

More than 430 seniors, along with teachers acting as chaperones, enjoyed a day full of fun and frolic with the many facilities of Adobe Creek. Seniors were able to swim, picnic, horseback ride, hike, participate in football games and balloon fights.

Weary, but with happy memories of a carefree day, picnickers made the long ride home in quiet satisfaction and solitude.





Exuberant seniors show unyielding spirit of '72

Seniors, Gary Heard, Rick Taylor, Pat McCarthy, and John Gordon, continually prove their superior spirit on the senior lawn.

Senior, Kevin Myers, competes with junior, Leonard Presant.

With the aid of the senior mothers, Ann Morrison, Diana Katsantones, Rick Koerlin, Jim Voogd, Brent Turner, and Laurie Kuehne, return money for chocolate sale.

Good Luck From The
SKYLINE PTA

Take time to think-Thoughts are the source of power. Take time to read-Reading is the Fountain of Wisdom. Take time to love-Loving is what makes living worthwhile. Take time to do your work well-Pride in your work no matter what it is, nourishes the Ego and the Spirit. Take time to pray-Prayer is a rock of strength in troubles.

'72

Diane Wright

Memories are forever

Happiness and sorrow, frustration and excitement, heartache and sentiment all characterize the year of 71-72. Though there were two separate publications classes at the beginning of the year, teamwork and mutual cooperation brought them together to produce the 228 pages in this book.

Special thanks go to:

Hal Matson photographers for their time and help;

Principal David Swanson and the vice principals whose consideration and understanding were appreciated;

Secretaries for always being there when they were needed;

Custodial Staff who helped with the advertising efforts;

All teachers whose classes were interrupted;

Student photographers who almost managed to get their pictures in on time;

Local merchants for their advertising which helped pay for the Olympian;

Mr. Don Freeman, yearbook company representative, for all those extra hours;

Mrs. Pege Rankin for her help and expert advice;

And most of all, the individuals who make the history contained in the book.

Through months of endeavor, the Olympian staff captured the elusive mood of the year. The staff members recall layouts drawn, pictures cropped, copy written, and deadlines met. History and recollections are encased in this book of memories . . . OLYMPIAN 72

To martha
a very crazy person, but also nice. Stay out of the boys bathrooms so you will stay out of trouble if you hear where I'm coming from. Good luck to you and my cruz.

To Martha.
A very sweet, intelligent, lady friend and understanding young whom I sometimes don't understand. I don't have to wish you good luck because I know you'll always have it. Stay as sweet as you are now and the world will love you.

Martha,
you are a very natty person,
but I have enjoyed knowing
you. I know you still like Gary so maybe if you have patience you will get him back. This time when you get him marry him. I wish you luck.

~Martha~

To a young lady that has brighten up my days at Skyline High School, with your overflowing personality, that drowns me. But, you hain some thing that no other girl has, that is, nothing. You have some sex appeal but I don't know to what sex. We believe in equal opportunity, but the way your weight is distributed it's discrimination. I would would compliment you but there's nothing to compliment you on. Your lips, looks like potatoe chips, your eyes look like Scooter pies, your legs look like pegs, your nose looks like an ear-hose, but the truth I have to tell, Martha as a whole you look like HELL. It a trip that you have padded hips, It a trig when you wear that peach wig. Its a pitty that you have a false titty. We have something to say that is nice with comparison to what we have already said and that is a poem. Remember Grant

Remember Guss

The hell with them

Remember Us,

A RIP ☺ Love,

Alonzo & Michael

Martha -
Well it's been a long three years.
Some ~~good~~ of it was good & some of it was bad. But I believe we both came out on top! Stay the sweet & crazy sister you are
- we'll always remain friends.
When you learn how the play week
cook me up (smile)
